

When Engineer Loses Control

This is what happened to a Delaware and Hudson freight train that went out of control near Hudson Falls, N. Y. Four cars of a standing D. & H. combination passenger and freight were derailed when another D. & H. Diesel-driven freight lost control and rolled down a grade, ramming the first train. The crews jumped to safety, and no one was injured. (NEA Telephoto)

Hollywood Folk Rebel At Coplon Trial Report

Frederic March, Edward G. Robinson, Others Express Anger, Amazement at Their 'Status' as Reported in Testimony

Washington, June 9 (AP)—A secret report to the F.B.I. naming Frederic March and others of Hollywood as Communists held top billing today in Judith Coplon's espionage trial—and drew condemnation from the people listed.

The report, which March branded "the most absurd thing I ever heard of," was produced over the vigorous objection of the government. It said that "Frederic March was a member of the Communist party and has been cooperating for many years."

According to the report, the same informant—identified only as ND 402—told F.B.I. Agents William J. McCarthy and Daniel F. Garde on July 18, 1947 that:

"Lionel Berman, head of the Cultural Committee of the Communist party, has been successful in using well-known Hollywood personalities to further Communist party aims, Frederic March being one of the persons who came under his influence. The informant further advised that he was satisfied the subject (March), who is active in the Communist infiltration of the motion picture industry, is a Communist party member along with Edward G. Robinson, Paul Robeson, Dorothy Parker, Donald Ogden Stuart, Ruth McKenney, Alfred Malick, Alvah Bessie, Dalton Trumbo, Millen and Michael Blankfort."

Another part of the report said:

"Confidential informant T-6 advised in December 1947 that Frederic March and Canada Lee were two outstanding Communist fellow travelers connected with the Institute for Democratic Education, Inc., along with Daniel L. Marsh, president of Boston University; Clyde R. Miller, a professor in the Teachers' College of Columbia University; and Norman Corwin of the Columbia Broadcasting System."

"There was nothing in the report to indicate who the informants were, beyond the symbols used. Nor was there anything to indicate how reliable they were or how much credence the F.B.I. placed in what they said."

In labeling the report on him most absurd, March said that "goes for me and my wife, too." His wife, actress Florence Elledge March, was named along with him as having had "Communist front activities and pro-Russian contacts."

Comment from those whose names were listed included denials, criticism and amazement.

Actor Edward G. Robinson said he had never been "even remotely connected" with the Communist Party and never played a role "that is so grand as that of an American citizen."

Paul Robeson, the Negro singer, was in Moscow giving a concert.

Dorothy Parker, writer, said "this makes me very sick. I'm damn glad to be an American and always have been. I regret to say I know no Russians, but I wish I did. Maybe it would help understanding if we all knew some Russians."

Alfred Maltz, Alvah Bessie and Don Trumbo, screenwriters, said through their attorney that it "is probably a case of misplaced zeal by some individual investigator." They said they knew that "certain congressmen" were out to censor the movies politically, but did not know that the Justice Department was "engaged in any such unconstitutional activity."

Millen Brand, of Barto, Pa., said: "I am not and never was a member of the Communist party."

Norman Corwin, radio writer, commented that he was neither a Communist nor a fellow-traveler. He expressed contempt for "irresponsible smear lists."

President March of Boston University said he had never had even a remote connection with the Communist party and "in fact I have been a Republican all my life."

Connecticut Has No Budget; Extra Session Is Called

General Assembly Ends Dramatically; Bowles Calls Meeting June 14

Hartford, Conn., June 9 (AP)—The strife-torn Connecticut General Assembly adjourned early today without adopting a state budget, and was promptly recalled by Governor Bowles for a special session opening next Tuesday.

The decision to wind up the regular session without providing appropriations for the next two years was reached with dramatic suddenness. An action without precedent in recent state history, it came after leaders had striven for hours to break a partisan deadlock over finances.

Before suddenly balking on a G.O.P. budget, the Democratic-controlled Senate had run up the surrender flag on a number of other major issues over which it and the Republican-controlled House had been battling almost since the Assembly convened last January.

Only on a $95,000,000 state housing program did the two parties reach a real compromise. On other major legislation considered (Continued on Page 7, Col. 5)

Mob Storms Sector, Reds Fight Them

Four Russian Officers Beat Back Looters Who Invade U. S. Headquarters

Reds Are Angered

Those Tearing Pictures of Stalin, Lenin Anger Soviets

Berlin, June 9 (AP)—Four fast-swinging Russian officers today beat back a looting mob of 200 railway strikers who had invaded the American sector headquarters of the Soviet-controlled Berlin railway.

Later, on U. S. Military Government orders, western police guarded the entrance to the five-story building as a result of Soviet Com-mandant Alexander Kotikov's official complaint against the "hoodlum mob."

Meanwhile, rail strikers simply picketed the building, preventing most of the headquarters staff from reporting for work.

One Soviet officer, escorting a Russian woman, was assaulted this morning. Pickets stormed around his car when he stopped in front of the building.

Another Russian officer rushed from the entrance to help. They pushed through the mob, holding the arm of the Russian woman. One of the Russians was kicked from the mob and ignored it.

The west German police guarding the building kept a hands-off policy, except to warn several pickets who seemed to be getting too threatening.

The mob had invaded an occupied building on the Spree Canal late last night, but threatened shortly after midnight when the four Russian officers suddenly arrived.

The Russians, angered by the sight of the mob ripping pictures of Prime Minister Stalin and Lenin off the walls, pitched into the strikers with their fists and drove them to the ground floor of the building.

Mob Withdraws

The mob withdrew after the arrival of 100 American sector German police, dispatched to the scene by Brig. Gen. Frank Howley, American commander in Berlin.

Howley dispatched the police after the Russians had complained about the "hoodlum" invasion.

The American commandant de-clared the allied-sponsored rail union had exceeded the limit of legitimate strike activities by invading the Russian-occupied building.

He said the Russians had four-power recognition to use the headquarters for direction of east German rail traffic outside the strike area in west Berlin.

Some 14,000 employees of the Soviet-controlled Reichsbahn have refused to work since May 21 unless demands for west mark wages, union recognition, and job security are granted.

The allied sectors of Berlin are cut off from railborne food and coal from western Germany. The U.S.-British airlift once again is the principal supplier of more than 2,000,000 west Berliners.

No serious injuries occurred in last night's fighting, although the 20-day strike earlier had cost two lives.

The assault on the headquarters was carefully planned by U.G.O. leaders yesterday. They blamed its ultimate failure on the fact that two non-striking rail tele-phonicians had warned the Soviet military government before the wires could be cut.

'Hearts' Slayed Trial Is Opened On Murder Count

Defendants Lose Appeal to U. S. Supreme Court for Temporary Delay

New York, June 9 (AP)—A couple who first met through an exchange of lonely hearts letters went to trial today on a charge of first-degree murder in one of three killings they allegedly committed.

The couple, who have talked of a Niagara Falls honeymoon after their trial, are Raymond Fernandez, 34, and his plump friend, Mrs. Martha Beck, 29.

The case was called before Supreme Court Justice Ferdinand Pecora, in Bronx county, in the death of Mrs. Janet Fay, 66, Albany, N. Y., widow who was bludgeoned and strangled last Jan. 4 at Valley Stream, N. Y.

The killing here was unknown to authorities until after the arrest of Fernandez and Mrs. Beck in Michigan on charges of slaying Mrs. Delphine Downing, 29, and her infant daughter, of Byron Center, Mich.

Mrs. Fay's body was dug up from a Queens basement on information authorities said Fernandez supplied. All three killings were said by police to have resulted from a scheme by the prisoners to swindle lonely women out of their savings and property during mail order romances.

The defense lost a point immediately after the trial was called. The prisoners were taken into the courtroom separately and (Continued on Page 7, Col. 6)

Martin Accepts K.H.S. Position; Salary Is $6,500

Robert H. Herzog, president of the Kingston Board of Education, today announced that John Robert Martin, 35, principal of the Oyster Bay, L. I., junior and senior high schools, had definitely accepted the position of principal of the Kingston High School.

Martin will come to Kingston at the conclusion of the summer semester of the University of Maine where he has been engaged to teach classes in secondary school administration. He will arrive in Kingston some time in August to take over his duties here.

At a special meeting of the board held Tuesday evening Martin was selected as principal of the high school to succeed Principal Clarence Dunn, who retires at the close of the present school year. Martin will start at a salary of $6,500.

French officials are viewing unfavorably the Communist drive through south China toward the Indo-China border. This brings up the possibility of imminent contact of the Chinese Reds with Viet-Nam Nationalists who are fighting the French. The Viet-Nam are led by Communist-trained Ho Chi-minh.

Chinese Red Leaders Watch Big Four as Future Guide

Nanking, June 9 (AP)—Chinese Communist leaders were reported today watching the Big Four Foreign Ministers' Conference as a guide for relations with the western powers.

Diplomatic observers here believe the outcome of the Paris meeting will be a strong influence on the pattern of Chinese Red contacts with the United States, Britain and France.

The foreign policy line of the Chinese Communists of late has followed closely the lead of Russia.

Failure of the Big Four ministers to ease tensions of the cold war is expected to further strain to the Chinese Reds' relations with the west.

There is deepening friction between the U. S. and the Chinese Reds.

This centers on the treaty of the American consulate general at Mukden in Red Manchuria. The U. S. State Department on May 17 ordered the consulate closed. For six months it has been isolated from all contact with the outside.

Aid Sought, Housing Is Needed for 15

The American Red Cross today issued an urgent appeal for housing for the 15 persons made homeless Tuesday afternoon when five destroyed several structures in the Ann street area.

Those who were burned out were Mr. and Mrs. Francis Fischer and their seven children, and Mr. and Mrs. Spencer S. Stoutenburg, their five children, and another for which they were caring.

The need for housing is the most pressing at the present time. Other needs, clothing and bedding, are being met with wholehearted efforts by local organizations and groups.

While the fire was still burning, the Red Cross, the Salvation Army and many individuals began collecting clothing and bedding for the homeless families, and cots were provided through Red Cross. Temporary living accommodations were found with relatives and friends.

Wednesday night members of Joyce-Schick Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars voted to hold a benefit dance for the families Monday night at the Municipal Auditorium. Music will be furnished by the Musicians Protective Local No. 215 without charge. Admission will be by donation of any amount.

City Judge Raymond Mino, who is post advocate for Joyce-Schick Post, is chairman of the committee in charge of the dance.

Persons unable to attend the dance but wishing to donate may send their donations to Commander Sidney Lane at the post building, 322 Delaware avenue, or to Judge Mino, Howard Shurtler or William Jordan at their homes.

All money collected will be turned over to Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk for distribution to the families.

Both families were temporarily housed, but in one case members of a family had to be separated.

According to Mrs. Ethel K. Wood, director of home service for Ulster County Chapter, American Red Cross, they are living under extremely overcrowded conditions. She urged that anyone knowing of accommodations contact the Red Cross office at 308 Clinton avenue. The telephone number is 4028.

Captain George Gibb of the Salvation Army reported today the clothing needs are mostly taken care of, except that several pairs of boys' trousers, a pair of size 9 men's shoes, and sheets, blankets, pillows and pillowcases are needed.

Murphy Inspects Fireswept Area

Chief Praises Department and Volunteers for Their Work

Fire Chief Joseph L. Murphy, returned home from the convention of New York State Fire Chiefs at Syracuse, today went on an inspection tour at the scene of the fire which swept over several buildings in the Ann street area Tuesday, and said he had obtained no definite information to indicate the cause of the blaze.

The chief said he was thoroughly pleased with the work done by members of the department and those in charge during his absence, and he praised the volunteer fire companies for their work in quenching one of the most serious fires in the city in recent years.

"All did a good job," the chief said, "and the way in which the fire was so quickly brought under control indicates the value of training."

General response and helpful offers of the volunteer units also indicates the value of the mutual aid system; the chief stressed, and he added that while he has not yet had time to learn every detail, he is convinced that the fire department demonstrated excellent co-operative effort.

His tour this morning, the chief said, was without result in determining the actual place of origin of the fire, but he expected to obtain more definite information this afternoon.

The chief revealed that at the time of a telephone call from this city notifying him of the fire, he was attending a demonstration of modern fire-fighting at the Syracuse convention. He did not receive the call, however, until he returned to his hotel late Tuesday night.

The chief returned to his home late Wednesday night.

Lewis Says Mine Union 'Required to Protect Human Values in Industry'

'Violations' Cited

Retail Coal President Says Contract Terms Are Broken

Washington, June 9 (AP)—The 450,000 members of the United Mine Workers start a week-long strike Monday to underscore John L. Lewis' lecture in economics to the nation's coal industry.

Lewis told the industry yesterday it has overproduced badly and the shutdown will help ease into the huge, 52-day supply of coal already mined.

"This period of inaction," he said, "will emphasize a lack of general stability in the industry and the dangers which will accrue therefrom if current harmful practices are not remedied," and he added:

"The mineworkers are required again to protect affirmatively the human and property values inherent in the coal mining industry."

Lewis said the strike will be a good thing all around. Some mine owners agreed. An industry source at Pittsburgh said:

"Many coal producers will be glad to see a shutdown. It has been a bad outage and it has been recently because of supply backlogs."

But there were dissenting opinions.

President J. Atlee Schafer of the American Retail Coal Association, attending a convention in Cleveland, said "Lewis is violating terms of the present contract by calling out miners prior to the expiration date."

At Charleston, W. Va., Secretary Walter A. Thurmond of the Southern Producers Association said there is nothing in the contract to permit what Lewis referred to as a "stabilizing period of inaction."

As for the miners, their reaction was summed up by one U.M.W. member who said: "John L. has always been right for us before, hasn't he?"

The strike comes on the eve of crucial negotiations for a new contract. By reducing the 65,000,000 tons of stocked coal above the ground, the weakest will bolster Lewis' bargaining position. It also will make more effective any new "no contract, no work" strike he might call in July. The present industry agreement expires June 30.

Other Parts of Situation

Other likely by-products are (1) a sharp drop in the chances for repeal of the labor-hated Taft-Hartley Law, and (2) a subsequent widening of the rift between Lewis and fellow labor leaders, Philip Murray of the C.I.O., and William Green of the A.F.L.

Spokesmen for Murray and Green said neither wanted to comment on Lewis' strike order. However, Lewis acted while he was in the midst of a bitter exchange with both the A.F.L. and C.I.O. presidents over labor law strategy.

Babin Is Charged

Former Yugoslav Official May Be Deported; to Get Hearing

New York, June 9 (AP)—Deportation charges have been lodged against Tom Babin, former Yugoslav government official who came to this country as a United Nations employee in 1947.

He was arrested yesterday, and taken to Ellis Island to await a hearing.

Edward J. Shaughnessy, district immigration director, said Babin recently was accused before a U. S. Senate subcommittee of "ordering many Yugoslav seamen liquidated on their return home after the war."

Shaughnessy said Babin also was known as a contact man for Communist Leader Steve Nelson, whom the House Un-American Activities Committee has named as a wartime Communist spy.

Flowers Cheer Bevin
Paris, June 9 (AP)—They've ordered flowers here for Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin. The idea is to raise his spirits. Bevin's aides instructed the manager of his hotel today to fill his room with flowers "because he's feeling depressed with the way the foreign ministers' conference is going." One source said "flowers always cheer him." Red roses and carnations particularly appeal to Bevin.

Suggests Fire Area for Housing

Alderman Charles Cole, (D.), 13th Ward, Tues. night introduced a proposal for consideration of the five-devastated downtown area for the proposed local housing project, during the Common Council session.

During a period of questioning in which Arthur A. Davis, Jr., chairman of the local housing authority, was asked by the chair to answer questions, the alderman wanted to know the state's attitude on on-site developments.

The alderman said he asked this because just before the meeting he had proposed the appointment of a committee to determine the extent of damage in the fire area, and he proposed that if it were extensive enough to be considered a "demolition site," that some action be taken along that line.

Davis said, he had visited the scene, and did not consider the damage extensive enough. He said also that the state's present policy was opposed to on-site developments, although such a proposal might be considered, if the damaged area were sufficiently large.

Earlier, Alderman-at-Large Charles J. Turck had asked Sixth Ward Alderman Peter F. Simpson if he could give an indication of the damage in the area. The alderman said that the fire had damaged at least seven buildings—mostly warehouse and garages, but about nine children and six adults were left homeless because of damage to dwellings.

AMA Refuses Any Compromise About Health Insurance

By FRANK CAREY
(A.P. Science Reporter)

Atlantic City, June 9 (P)—The American Medical Association is open to suggestions for elaboration of its own program to meet the nation's health problems—but will not compromise on its stand against compulsory health insurance.

This was made clear today in a statement by the A.M.A.'s board of trustees and a subsequent interview with the organization's new president, Dr. Ernest Irons of Chicago.

The board announced its intention to call a conference of "interested groups"—such as labor and farm organizations—to consider the A.M.A.'s official stand on the "advancement of medicine and public health."

Dr. Irons told a reporter invitations would be sent out to get the views of a cross section of the American public—including representatives of government, labor, education, agriculture, industry, and social service.

Irons, who took office at the A.M.A.'s 98th meeting here, emphasized he was speaking as an individual, but expressed confidence he reflected the board of trustees' views when he said:

"No matter what develops at the projected conference, the A.M.A. will steadfastly hold out against any yielding on the real hot-potato issue of the national health subject—compulsory, sickness insurance."

"There will be no compromise," said Irons, "on the general principle of our opposition to compulsory insurance which involves freedom of medicine and also freedom of the American people."

The A.M.A.'s previously announced 12-point plan for the advancement of medicine and public health calls for "rapid extension of voluntary hospital and medical care insurance" as opposed to President Truman's proposal for pay-roll deductions to meet compulsory insurance costs.

The A.M.A.'s program also calls for:

Establishment of an "independent" national health agency with a physician in charge; a national science foundation to promote research; state and local administration of federal funds to assist in medical care; provision for "establishment of complete public health coverage for the country, with federal aid where the need can be shown."

Will Amend Bill

Trenton, N. J., June 9 (P)—Governor Driscoll prepared today to amend the administration bill to restore the New Jersey public utility anti-strike law by providing standards for compulsory arbitration. Driscoll told newspaper last night, after prolonged conferences with utility management and labor, that the standards set in the measure introduced in the Senate last Monday were unacceptable to him. A new draft would be worked out today with his legislative leaders even if it means prolonging the special legislative session, he added.

Council Considers Various Matters

A resolution offered by Twelfth Ward Alderman James E. Martin at Tues. night's Common Council meeting asked for repair of the Washington avenue viaduct.

It proposed new pavement for the structure, strengthening and replacement of concrete abutments and guard railing, repainting increased lighting, and was referred to the Board of Public Works.

The resolution stressed the dangers of travel over the structure in its present condition, said a portion of it fell "completely through" only last year, and is dangerous because of its narrowness for travel of school buses and heavy vehicles.

The claim of Mrs. Lillian Tarrock, of Port Ewen, for $76,597.53 for the death of her husband, was reintroduced on suggestion of Corporation Counsel James C. Connelly, to include the name of Mrs. Tarrock "as executrix" under the will of her husband, Ernest Tarrock. The latter was fatally injured Feb. 4 when his auto skidded into the Rondout creek off Dock street.

The former claim did not name her as executrix. Arthur A. Davis, Jr., is attorney for Mrs. Tarrock. It was referred again to the corporation counsel and auditing committee.

A claim of Anna Novik, 87 Franklin street, for $5,000 for personal injuries, and one of $1,000 by Nathan Novik for loss of the services of his wife, were filed and referred to the corporation counsel and auditing committee.

Information on the claims filed by Attorney Joseph Avis said they are a result of Mrs. Novik falling on broken pavement at Main and Fair street in front of the county clerk's office last March 28.

The councilmen enacted legislation to authorize the sale of $158,000 in bonds June 22. The bond issue was adopted earlier in the year.

A bill for sewer repair filed by H. F. King for John Miller and amounting to $182.82, was referred to the corporation counsel and auditing committee.

A request by the Miron Building Products Co., Inc., for permit to extend a railroad siding on Perry street, was referred to the fire department.

A special committee appointed to study the proposal to use No. 8 schoolyard as a playground, proposed a provision in the 1950 budget for such consideration. The committee said it had conferred with the education board's building committee and decided upon this action.

Edwin Crosby, pastor of the Seventh Day Adventist Church, applied for use of the municipal auditorium from September 11 and each Sunday, Tuesday and Friday evening thereafter from 6:30 to 9 p. m., until December 8, and the application was referred to the building committee. The request is for conducting religious services, the letter said.

A letter from City Judge Raymond J. Milne on the temporary appointment of Mrs. Mary H. Sieger as clerk of the city court during the illness of Mrs. Leona Felstel, was filed, as was another from Mayor Oscar V. Newdick on the appointment of John J. Schwanik, 132 Foxhall avenue, to the water board.

The local law providing for the one-per cent utility tax, was given a final reading and adopted.

City Clerk Bernhard S. Kramer was voted permission to attend the annual meeting of the New York State Association of City and Village Clerks in Syracuse June 13, 14 and 15 in conjunction with the annual state mayors conference.

U. S. B-29s Are To Join Maneuvers

Paris, June 9 (AP)—U. S. Air Force Superforts based in England are scheduled to take part in war maneuvers this month with the Western Defense Command of Field Marshal Lord Montgomery. Details of the international war games combining air and naval power of France, Britain, Belgium, Holland and Luxembourg are still to be announced by Montgomery's headquarters in London. However, the present plans, according to a Western Defense Command official, call for the French fleet to rendezvous with British units off the Bay of Biscay on June 30. The naval operation will last about 10 days. Air units of the Western Defense Command will gather in southeast England June 25. The operation will end July 5. R.A.F. Bomber Command will play the same role it did in the war, furnishing a night time striking force, while the U. S. Superforts will provide the daylight force. Holland is sending a squadron of fighters, Belgium and Luxembourg are sending ground officers. In Arabic-speaking countries, the word fellah, is used to designate peasants.

West Coast Celebrities Hit At Senator Tenney's Group

Sacramento, Calif., June 9 (AP)—Movie figures, writers and politicians today cried "lies," and "slanders" to a legislative committee report linking them with Communism.

The 1949 report of the California Un-American Activities Committee, headed by Senator Jack Tenney (R.-Los Angeles) yesterday listed hundreds of persons as Communist sympathizers or followers. Many of these are well known in the movie world.

"They have conspicuously followed or appeared some of the Communist party line program over a long period of time," the report said. It listed C.I.O. longshore leader Harry Bridges and Hugh Bryson, head of the Independent Progressive party and head of the C.I.O. Marine Cooks and Stewards, as Communists. Both repeatedly have denied they are Communists.

Bridges currently faces a government charge of perjury—of lying when he said at his 1945 naturalization hearing that he had never been a Communist. Among those listed as followers of the Communist line were: Larry Adler, Pearl S. Buck, Charles Chaplin, Norman Corwin, Bartley Crum, Congressman Helen Gahagan Douglas, Paul Draper, Florence Eldridge, John Garfield, Dashiell Hammett, Katharine Hepburn, Lena Horne, Langston Hughes, John Huston, Danny Kaye, Gene Kelly, Robert W. Kenny, Ring Lardner, Jr., John Howard Lawson, Canada Lee, Carey McWilliams, Dr. Thomas Mann, Frederic March, Burgess Meredith, Clifford Odets, Dorothy Parker, Lenny Parks, Gregory Peck, Vincent Price, Paul Robeson, Edward G. Robinson, O. John Rogge, Arde Shaw, Frank Sinatra, Gale Sondergaard, Herbert K. Sorell, Lionel Stander, Donald Ogden Stewart, Gloria Stuart, Senator Glenn H. Taylor, Henry A. Wallace, Orson Wells and Anita Whitney.

The committee also accused the newspapers, the San Francisco Chronicle, San Francisco News and Los Angeles Daily News of "continuing to misrepresent, misreport and attack" the committee. The Chronicle, in an editorial, denied the accusation but welcomed being placed with those critical of the committee. It said its record in fighting communism was known throughout the nation, but Tenney "has persisted in making that struggle needlessly harsh."

The committee said the majority of the state's newspapers had been fair and accurate in reporting anti-Communist activities. "Carey McWilliams, Los Angeles attorney and author, said: "Like many Liberals who are members of the Democratic party, I have developed a remarkable indifference to the slanders of Sen. Jack Tenney," whom he called "a renegade from that party, repudiated by his union and quite recently repudiated by the people of Los Angeles as a candidate for mayor."

"Product of Liars!" Sinatra called the report "the product of liars" and said "if they don't cut it out, I'll show them how much an American can fight back."

Movie director John Huston commented: "The Tenney report is yet another example of that senator's vicious campaign to smear the names of his betters in loyalty and obedience to the principles of our democracy."

Actress Katharine Hepburn refused to "dignify" the accusation with a reply. Other comments: Gregory Peck: "I have been denying these allegations for several years and I will do so once more. I am not now and never have been associated with any Communist organization or supporters of Communism."

Gene Kelly: "I don't know what Mr. Tenney is talking about. I am not a Communist, never was a Communist and have no sympathy with Communist activities. The only line I know how to follow is the American line."

The California Assembly Education Committee last night defeated a Tenney bill to forbid the indoctrination of school students with any but the American system of government.

Upstate Cold Harms Crops

Albany, N. Y., June 9 (AP)—Temperatures fell to record lows upstate early today.

The Weather Bureau said it would be cool again tonight, with readings in the 30s and low 40s. Warmer weather was predicted for tomorrow.

Light frost was reported in Albany, Buffalo and Rochester, where record lows were set for the date. Albany's 38 degrees broke the 1913 mark by two degrees and Rochester's 39 was two degrees below the 1902 record. A reading of 41 at Buffalo was one degree under the mark for the date set in 1913.

Onondaga was the coldest known spot in the state—33 above zero. It was the second day of low temperatures in the state. Heavy frost caused crop damage in western New York yesterday. Potatoes were hardest hit and some damage was reported to clover, alfalfa, beans and peas.

450,000 Miners

them of a "foul betrayal of labor" in agreeing to Senate amendments to the administration Taft-Hartley repeal bill. Murray retorted by calling Lewis a "rule-or-union official" and Green declared that Lewis' statement had put him "in a class with Senator Taft," the Ohio Republican who helped write Taft-Hartley.

Negotiations for a new coal contract have been listless and, to date, fruitless. Bargaining sessions with southern producers at Bluefield, W. Va., broke up yesterday with both sides calling names. Lewis is due to start separate contract talks with the U. S. Steel Corp. for its mines next Monday, the day his strike begins.

The big contract: stumbling block so far is this: Lewis wants more money for his $100,000,000-a-year union welfare fund—possibly through a boost of as much as 100 per cent in the 20-cents-a-ton production royalty. Operators want the royalty reduced if possible, and payments out of the fund trimmed.

There also are arguments over continuing (a) the present contract's union shop clause and (b) the provision saying the miners must work only when "able and willing."

Little coal will be mined for some time. Next week's stoppage is to end June 20, but the miners start their annual vacation June 25. The vacation period ends July 5—if there is a new contract to work under.

'Hearts' Slayed

seated at counsel table with a correction officer between them. Herbert Rosenberg, defense attorney, moved that the defendants be allowed to sit next to each other. A correction department officer informed the court that departmental rules did not permit such an arrangement. "You may put the defendants anywhere you like," Justice Peckora told the officer.

A panel of 250 persons was called from which to select a jury. At least half of them told court officers they wished to be excused. The task of selecting a jury was expected to take at least today and tomorrow, with a possibility that testimony may start Monday. The defendants lost yesterday a last ditch appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court for a postponement of their trial.

In Washington, Justice Robert H. Jackson of the U. S. Supreme Court yesterday denied a petition by their attorney, Herbert E. Rosenberg, for a temporary stay in the trial.

Rosenberg had asked for a postponement pending consideration of another petition asking the high court to review a finding by the New York Court of Appeals.

The latter court refused to hear an appeal of the couple from a lower court dismissal of petitions for a habeas corpus through which they sought to be returned to Michigan where they were arrested early in March. Michigan has no death penalty, but New York has.

In Michigan, they are charged with slaying another widow, Mrs. Delphine Downing, 29, and her infant daughter, Rachel of Byron Center.

Authorities charge the three killings grew out of a scheme by Fernandez and Mrs. Beck to swindle lonely women out of their savings and property during mail order romances. The prisoners, themselves, first met by an exchange of "Lonely Hearts" letters.

May Charge Contempt

Washington, June 9 (AP)—House and Senate lawmakers investigating Communist activities today considered citing for contempt a trio of witnesses who refused to answer questions on constitutional grounds. The witnesses involved were Alfred A. Neuveld and George Pirinsky, who testified yesterday before a Senate group investigating Slav groups in this country; and Communist Steve Nelson, who appeared before the House Un-American Activities Committee. They refused to tell a Senate Judiciary Subcommittee whether they are Communists.

Ford Workers Denied Payments

Detroit, June 9 (AP)—More than 70,000 Michigan Ford workers idle in the recent "speed-up" strike were denied unemployment compensation today under a state agency ruling.

However, the Michigan Unemployment Compensation Commission said that 7,600 strike-idled war veterans employed by Ford would get benefits under G.I. regulations.

The latter payments will amount to an estimated $456,000. A difference in interpretation of the state and federal laws figured in the decision, the commission said. The agency said that Illinois, Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York and New Jersey ruled similarly.

State law prohibits compensation to a worker who is idle because of a labor dispute in the "establishment" where he works. The state Supreme Court has held that "establishment" means any plant of the company.

The strike was called at Ford's

Medina Refuses To Free Two Reds

New York, June 9 (AP)—Federal Judge Harold R. Medina today refused to free two defendants in the Communist trial whom he had jailed despite defense contentions that the court record in the matter was faulty.

Richard Gladstein, defense attorney, contended that the judgments of contempt entered against the pair contained statements "not in conformity with the facts." The two defendants are Gus Hall and Henry Winston. Medina ordered them jailed between court sessions for the remainder of the trial last Friday after they had loudly protested a 30-day contempt sentence against John W. Gates, another defendant.

The judge did not use the word "contempt" Friday in ordering Hall and Winston remanded to jail.

Gladstein said the judgment of contempt against the two men became available only yesterday and that the legal form used for them "incorrectly conveys the idea" that there was a pronouncement of judgment Friday that the men were guilty of contempt.

The attorney also challenged a statement by the judge that Hall and Winston took "several steps past the counsel table and toward the bench" and addressed the court in an "angry" manner. Medina replied that "they did," adding "what I saw and what I heard is in the certificate."

"What do you claim?" the judge asked. "That they actually have to assault the court?"

U. S. Attorney John F. X. McGohy declared the events "were too fresh to require any elaboration" and urged denial of Gladstein's motion to vacate the judgments. Medina so ruled.

Will Address Legion

Washington, June 9 (AP)—Cal. J. Montee Johnson announced today that President Truman will address the annual American Legion convention in Philadelphia in August. Johnson, a member of the Interstate Commerce Commission, said Mr. Truman will attend the convention as a delegate and will be presented with the American Legion Distinguished Service Medal. Johnson talked with reporters at the White House, where he said he went to select a photograph of the President for use in the official convention program. The convention will run from August 28 through August 30. Johnson said the President will speak on the opening day.

Rouge and Lincoln-Mercury plants. Elsewhere in Michigan—and in other states—Ford employees were laid off as a result. About 65,000 men actually went on strike and 106,000 became idle. The federal law specifies that benefits are to be denied in event of a strike at the "factory, establishment, or other premises" of a company.

The commission ruled that this served to make ex-G.I. men eligible for compensation if they were not directly involved in the strike. Any working at Rouge or Lincoln-Mercury, however, were ruled ineligible.

her husband was recovering from a serious illness and could not make a statement. A spokesman for Columbia University's Teachers College said Miller had been a part time instructor up until last July.

The F.B.I. papers are part of the evidence in the trial of Miss Coplan, 28, on charges of plotting to assassinate President Truman. The department with reason to believe the information would be used to aid Russia.

Her prosecutors, John M. Kelley, Jr. and Raymond P. Wharley, tried hard but vainly to keep out all secret F.B.I. reports. Federal Judge Albert L. Reeves rejected their pleas that national security was involved.

The 75-year-old jurist from Kansas City, Mo., told the prosecutors his job is to see that justice is done and that if perils are involved in the publication of the secret papers the government must assume them. References to the papers were in Miss Coplan's purse when she was arrested.

Len Wentz Dies
Ponca City, Okla., June 8 (AP)—Len Wentz, Oklahoma oil millionaire and a Republican leader, died here today. The colorful Republican party national committeeman had recently returned from a two and a half month stay at Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minn. He was hospitalized at that time he was recovering from pneumonia. Wentz, a bachelor, was about 63 years old. He had always kept his age a secret, however.

Connecticut Has
cerning labor, old age assistance and oleomargarine, Senate Democrats accepted Republican bills with outspoken reluctance as "the best we can get."

Scrapped with the budget in the final deadlock were an institutional building program and increased state grants for education—matters which the governor said he would present again when the special session gets underway.

The final rap of the gavel adjourning the session came at 1:13 a. m. (E.S.T.), scarcely two hours before a final conference between the Democratic chief executive and Republican leaders had broken up with the understanding—that an agreement was in sight.

The legislative leaders, faced with a constitutional deadline requiring business to be completed by midnight, had agreed to operate on standard time. With the extra hour thus gained, they had hoped for a sufficient time to complete the task of working on finance bills.

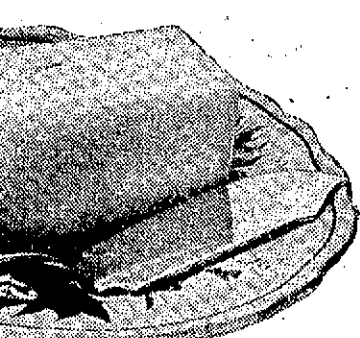

But a last minute hitch developed following Republican refusal to meet a Democratic demand that they permit state borrowing beyond a $28,000,000 limit they had set. And the budget bill was stalled in this final deadlock.

The Senate's failure to adopt the budget, coming in a scene of excited confusion just as the constitutional deadline was reached, came as a shock to many legislators and to the crowds of spectators thronging the capitol.

The housing problem is a serious one in New York. When as many as four or five children often sleep in one small room, no wonder it is a surprise to know that some people have houses just for hens. Even if you earn a pretty fair salary you have to pay an awful lot out of it for rent. And you haven't any hens to lay eggs for you. Nor are there any fresh vegetables growing in the garden. Everything you get you have to pay for in New York. That is why ordinary people cannot pay to send their children to the country, even when they are pale and thin and there is nothing healthy for them to do in summer.

All over New York, mothers take their small children to the movies and park them there for hours on end—sometimes for all day—in order to go shopping and have time for chores. How much better for a child to spend part of this vacation in a Friendly Town home! Won't you invite a youngster to be your guest for two short weeks? Thousands are praying to come.

Your local Friendly Town Committee, the Rev. Burton F. Tarr, chairman, will be waiting for your call at telephone 3482. You'd be surprised to find out how much fun it is to make a child happy. Find room for one or two and call your chairman today.

Hartwick Gives
Degrees to 100 at Graduation Rites

Nearly 100 students from seven states received their coveted college diplomas from Hartwick College at exercises held in the college auditorium June 6.

With 30 Bachelor of Science degrees and 43 Bachelor of Arts degrees, the College of the Catskills in Oneonta, N. Y., graduated the largest class in the history of the upstate Lutheran institution.

The commencement program began June 3 and continued until June 6.

The special event this year was the laying of the cornerstone for the new library and memorial tower. Dr. Otto E. Voigt, treasurer and assistant to the president officiated and Dr. Christenberry, Kingston, performed the liturgy. A small copper box soldered shut from the elements was placed in the cornerstone containing documents significant of Hartwick College today and yesterday.

Three Czechs Quit
Diplomatic Service

Chicago, June 9 (AP)—Three officials of the Czechoslovakian consulate-general in Chicago have resigned their nation's diplomatic service.

They are Consul Leopold Riedl, Secretary Miroslav Mejstrik and Chamberlain Josef Sramek. Their resignations were effective yesterday.

Other aids at the consulate general here declined to give further information, and the consul general was unavailable for comment.

However, a spokesman for the information service of free Czechoslovakia said the three who resigned had informed Secretary of State Dean Acheson of their action and had requested him to grant political asylum in this country for themselves and their families.

Alligerville Girl Fractures Skull; Falls From Cliff

Judith Santosky, 6, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Santosky of Alligerville, suffered a skull fracture when she fell about 14 feet from a cliff near her home shortly before 9 p. m. yesterday, the child's mother said today.

She was taken to Kingston Hospital where her condition was described today as "serious."

Mrs. Santosky said that Judith and her sister, Virginia, 4, were on their way to meet their father a short distance down the road when Judith fell from the cliff by the bridge near the Alligerville post office.

Virginia ran back to the house to call her mother, the latter said, and when Mrs. Santosky arrived at the scene, the child was bleeding profusely. She took her to a neighbor's house and arranged to have her rushed to the hospital.

Mrs. Santosky said that Judith had apparently fallen on some stones and a tree stump near the foot of the cliff.

Higher Than '46

The city's low temperature of 46 degrees, while unusual for June, was five points higher than the low in the city engineer's office in June 1946, according to a survey of records today. The 41 degrees three years ago was the lowest recorded since records have been kept locally. The New York city water department reported, however, that a low of 41 degrees was recorded at the headworks of the Ashokan reservoir last night. The lowest locally this month was 35 on June 1, and the lowest in May was 37 on May 21.

Will Move Street
New York, June 9 (AP)—The little street in the biggest city in the world is going to be moved. To provide for approaches to a new Manhattan-Brooklyn tunnel, engineers said yesterday that Edgar street, which is only 57 feet long, will be shifted 30 feet north. Its new location, it will be a few feet longer, but it still will be New York city's shortest street. It runs between Greenwich street and Trinity Place, near the southern tip of Manhattan.

Russia Expected

Acheson's demand as a move to force the Russians to make up their minds over exactly what they wanted to achieve in the Berlin trade talks and the foreign ministers conference.

Agreement Desired

Informants in Berlin said the Russians actually desired a trade agreement with the west and were using the foreign ministers conference in Paris as a smoke screen to hide their eagerness.

One high American official said the Russians, in his opinion, were intended to reach a political agreement in Paris and the meeting they really were interested in was in Berlin.

These Berlin sources believed that as soon as the trade pact is concluded the true Soviet position at Paris would be disclosed. They think the Soviet position will be disagreement on political questions with a proposal that the west keep the door open for future conversations.

Western officials in Paris believed it was certain that Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky would not accept the five-day deadline set by Acheson for an end to the Berlin tie-up.

Acheson proposed that the Berlin commanders, who are meeting on the rail strike, report by June 13. He indicated that if they did not reach agreement by then the foreign ministers would have to tackle the problem.

The ministers, unable to agree on a long term plan for all Germany, appeared to be turning to efforts to reach at least a temporary solution to East-West contention in Berlin.

The highlight of their debate today is almost certain to center around the three-week-old western-blessed strike of railwaymen which is heightening tension in Berlin.

No Accident Pretended

The stoppage started just before the Foreign Ministers Council met. Few of the diplomats in the Paris sessions pretend that the time the railwaymen chose to strike was an accident.

The strike and subsequent clashes with Soviet sector authorities led to the "little blockade" of Berlin. The Russians halted all trains bound for Berlin from the western zones on the ground that the strikers' seizure of the railroad station and depots made this unavoidable. The western allies previously had ordered Soviet-controlled German police out of western sector stations and installations.

A successful outcome of the Berlin negotiations would give the Russians access to west Germany's coal, steel and other raw materials and consumer goods. It also would open up sources of food supplies to the western zones.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. O'Brien and family of Milford, Conn., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gibson one day last week.

Capt. A. D. Relyea is spending a few days at his home here with his sister, Miss Florence Relyea.

Senators Resent

Lewis Attitude

Washington, June 9 (AP)—Fitter resentment against John L. Lewis seethed today among senators trying to get rid of the Taft-Hartley Law's emergency injunction provision.

Those lawmakers claimed privately that the United Mine Workers' chief, in ordering a week's shutdown of the coal pits, probably killed any chance for scrapping the section which calls for court orders to halt strikes threatening the national welfare.

Some senators who favor the Taft-Hartley Law figured Lewis' action strengthened their position all along the line.

Word that Lewis had ordered the miners out of the pits for a week starting Monday reached the capitol yesterday while the Senate was debating the administration bill to repeal the T-H Act.

Neither that bill as drafted nor a compromise version backed by the Senate's Democratic leadership contains any injunction provision.

The Taft-Hartley Law does, of course, and the government has used the provision in the past to halt a Lewis-ordered shutdown. Lewis himself has demanded repeal of the Taft-Hartley Law and he has bitterly denounced the injunction section.

Those circumstances increased the uneasiness of senators who are pushing for elimination of the T-H injunction section.

Their comments for publication are mild compared to their private remarks about the Lewis move.

Chambers Gives

Names of Five

At Hiss' Trial

New York, June 9 (AP)—Whittaker Chambers today named five men who, he said, supplied him with government documents when he was a Soviet spy ring courier.

They were, besides Alger Hiss, at whose perjury trial Chambers testified, William Ward Pigman, Harry Dexter White, Vincent Reno, and Julian Wadleigh, he said.

Chambers had previously named Wadleigh at the federal court trial of Hiss, former high State Department official, on two perjury counts.

(Pigman, of Appleton, Wis., a one-time chemist in the U. S. Bureau of Standards, appeared before the grand jury which indicted Hiss last December. After testifying Pigman said in a statement: "I categorically deny that I ever had any dealings with Whittaker Chambers or that I ever knew the man. I further unqualifiedly deny that I have ever given to Chambers or to any other person any unauthorized government information.")

White, former assistant secretary of the treasury, died last Aug. 17 at the age of 56 at Fitzwilliam, N. H. He suffered a heart attack shortly after appearing before the House Un-American Activities Committee where he denied he was a member of an "elite" group in a Communist apparatus in Washington as charged by Miss Elizabeth T. Bentley.

(A Franklin Victor Reno was named before the grand jury by two witnesses as a mathematics expert at the Aberdeen Proving Ground, Aberdeen, Md., in 1942 with whom they collaborated in writing a book on ballistics. The witnesses told reporters the jury asked questions about Reno's "character" and what he knew about him.)

Chambers' revelation of the names followed this sequence: The prosecutor, Assistant U. S. Attorney Thomas F. Murphy, asked a four-hour adjournment to reread the entire grand jury testimony to Chambers, his star witness.

Federal Judge Samuel H. Kaufman refused to permit this but agreed that if the prosecution could show at any time that Chambers listed five government sources it would be permitted to do so. Murphy then asked Chambers to give the names.

Slowly Chambers said, "The five sources were: Julian Wadleigh, Ward Pigman, Harry Dexter White, Alger Hiss and Vincent Reno."

When Murphy asked permission to have Chambers give the positions of the five, Hiss' attorney, Lloyd Paul Stryker, objected. (Henry Julian Wadleigh was accused last year in testimony before the House Un-American Activities Committee of carrying U. S. secrets to Communist agents. Wadleigh declined then to comment on the charges. He declined to comment again when his name was brought into testimony earlier this week.)

Meanwhile, Chambers' wife was expected to take the witness stand as a government witness today.

Aid Sought . . .

Department of the Kingston-Paid Fire Department announced today that it had arranged for a contribution of $100 to help the families left homeless by the fire.

Henry P. Elghemey, president of the Kingston Newspaper Guild, said this afternoon the guild, composed of Kingston Daily Freeman editorial, business and maintenance employees, had voted to contribute $25 to aid the families.

Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk was named by the U.F.A. group as honorary chairman and the check from that organization and the newspaper guild will be turned over to him. The money, it is expected will be used for the purchase of furniture and equipment for the families.

Capt. Gibbs of the Salvation Army also said later today that he had learned that one of the families is in need of wash cloths, towels and curtains.

In this area. Grass is also being cut at the sides of the various highways.

Mrs. Oscar Smith and Miss Marguerite Smith were in Kingston on Tuesday.

Richard Coy, Jr. has a new car. Employees of the State Department Highways are repairing sections of the macadam surfaces on Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Coy of Poughkeepsie were recent visitors of relatives here.

Farley's Daughter Weds

New York, June 9 (AP)—Elizabeth Mary Farley, daughter of former Postmaster General James A. Farley and Mrs. Farley, was married here today to Glenn Montgomery, New York electrical engineer. The ceremony was performed in the Lady Chapel of St. Patrick's Cathedral. The Rev. Thomas A. Donnellan officiated. The bride is a graduate of Wellesley College. Montgomery was graduated from Montana State University. The couple will make their home in New York. The ceremony was followed by a reception and breakfast for relatives and close friends.

Committee Gives Approval
Washington, June 9 (AP)—The Senate Armed Services Committee gave quick approval to the nomination of Gordon Gray as secretary of the army. Gray, present undersecretary of army, was nominated by President Truman Tuesday to succeed Kenneth Royall, who resigned. The nominee appeared briefly at an armed service meeting this forenoon. The nomination now goes to the Senate for expected approval, possibly later today.

Blame Asthma Upon Relatives
Atlantic City, N. J., June 9 (AP)—New you probably can blame even your asthma on your relatives.

A Boston doctor said today that in some people physical and mental fatigue could set up bodily conditions leading to an asthmatic attack, and he added: "The active, high pressure business man finally becomes exhausted. The housewife is harassed by difficult relatives, and the endless routine finally wears her down."

If such people have an "asthmatic tendency," Dr. Francis M. Rackemann told the American Medical Association, the stress they are undergoing will make them ripe for the wheezes.

He said asthma which usually begins after the age of 40 is generally caused by trouble inside the patient and not by an allergy—that is, sensitivity to some external substance like ragweed.

Next Time Fire Hits, It May Be Your Turn!
Nobody knows where or when fire will strike next or how much it will cost to repair the damage or replace the property destroyed.

That's why being careless about insurance protection just doesn't make sense.

Remember, fire's next stop may be at your place. And, if you're caught without insurance coverage . . . adequate insurance coverage . . . you can lose plenty!

Safeguard your property investment today with Fire Insurance. Or, if you already have a Fire Insurance Policy, make sure that its amount is adequate in the light of your current property values.

Dad Rates Special Cake on Father's Day

A rich chocolate cake with his name on it spells happy celebration for Dad on Father's Day.

By GAYNOR MADDON
NEA Staff Writer

How about Father's Day? The sure-fire answer in most American homes is always "a rich chocolate cake."

But what about the rest of Dad's own Father's Day dinner? Well, to that question there are positive answers, too. Here's a list of foods men generally rate as "best"—steak, roast beef, potatoes, corn, lima beans, beef-steak tomatoes, sweet onions.

Men like peace and quiet, too. How about having a little conference with the rest of the family before his dinner. Agree to postpone all arguments, demands and general confusion until the next day.

As to the cake, here's one with "Dad" all over it, created exclusively for this column by cake experts of the Swift & Co. Home Economics Laboratories.

Father's Day Cake

Preparation: Have all ingredients at room temperature. Preheat oven to 375 degrees F. Line bottoms of 2 heart-shaped pans with waxed paper.

Ingredients: One-half cup shortening, 2½ cups sifted cake flour, 1½ cups sugar, 1½ teaspoons soda, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1½ cups sour milk or buttermilk, 2 squares melted chocolate, 2 eggs.

Step 1: Place shortening in bowl. Sift together flour, sugar, soda, and salt into bowl. Add vanilla and 1 cup of the sour milk. Beat 2 minutes on medium speed of electric mixer, or by hand using 150 strokes per minute. Throughout mixing time keep butter scraped from sides and bottom with rubber scraper. Scrape bowl and beaters.

Step 2: Add melted chocolate, beat for 2 additional minutes, eggs and remaining sour milk and scrape bowl and beaters. Pour equal amounts of batter into cake pans. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) for 30 minutes or until done. Cool.

Filling: Cream ½ cup shortening with ½ teaspoon salt and 1 teaspoon vanilla. Add 2 cups sifted confectioners' sugar and 2 tablespoons milk. Reserve a little for lettering and decoration. Stir 2 squares (2 ounces) melted unsweetened chocolate into remaining icing. Add additional milk if necessary, to make a soft creamy mixture. Fill and ice cake with chocolate. Use white icing for "Dad" and the fill around the edge, or reverse, using white icing for cake and chocolate for lettering.

TOMORROW'S MENU

BREAKFAST: Orange juice, ready-to-eat whole grain cereal, enriched toast, butter or fortified margarine, fruit jam, coffee, milk.

LUNCHEON: Fluffy omelet with Spanish sauce, enriched creamy bread or rolls, butter or fortified margarine, stewed rhubarb, raisin cookies, tea, milk.

FATHER'S DAY DINNER: Broiled steak, fried onions, baked potatoes, lima beans, corn on cob, enriched rolls, butter or fortified margarine, lettuce and tomato salad, French dressing, strawberries, cream, Dad's chocolate cake, coffee, milk.

Refrigerating Eggs

"Never wash eggs before refrigerating them; if you do so you remove the 'bloom' or protective mucous coating on the shell that is there when the egg is laid. Just before the eggs are to be broken out of the shell and used, however, they should be washed under cold running water."

FLAKORN CORN MUFFIN MIX

For that snack after the movie, corn muffins hit the spot. Serve them plain, hot or cold, or break open, spread with butter or preserves. Quick, easy with Flakorn. Just add an egg and milk.

GARDINER

Gardiner, June 8.—Mrs. Beatrice McGee of New York, Joseph Heaney of Chicago and Robert Heaney of Kingston were recent guests of Mrs. Phillip Donahue.

Mrs. Fred Petersen and Mrs. Peter Peterson, who have been visiting relatives in Germany, returned home on Saturday.

Mrs. Frank Majestic and children of Wallkill were week-end guests of her mother, Mrs. Anna O'Neil.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ruesch and daughter of North Bergen, N. J., were recent guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McInnis.

Lester Everts of Fayetteville, N. C., is spending a vacation at his home here.

Laura Ann Coffey of Marlboro, Pa., is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Moran.

Frank Jayne, who is teaching at the Millersburg Military Institute, Kentucky, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Jayne.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Williamson and daughter of Walden were Sunday guests of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bohm.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ackerman, Jr., of New York spent a few days of last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Ackerman, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Decker of Thellus were week-end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Pizzuto.

Miss Janet Denton of Kingston and Miss Grace Boland of Thellus spent the week-end with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Denton.

The Gardiner school will have a covered dish supper at the schoolhouse at 8:45 p. m. on Thursday, June 9. Each one attending will bring his and her own silver and dishes, also a covered dish. All interested in the progress of the school are cordially invited.

The Ladies' Aid of the Reformed Church held an all-day outdoor meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Whittemore last week. A covered dish luncheon was enjoyed, topped off with strawberry shortcake served by the hostess. In the afternoon the meeting was held. All were glad to have Mrs. Rinehart again preside after her recent illness. Devotions were in charge of Mrs. Edythe Puschere. The members were reminded of the annual fair date, August 4. Mrs. Myron Wells is supper chairman; Mrs. Raymond DuBois and Mrs. Edythe Puschere, co-chairmen. The Dutch Circle will be in charge of the dining room, also domestic and fancy booths. Each member is asked to give two aprons and a fancy article. The choir will have a candy booth with Mrs. Lake as chairman. The Sunday school will have the children's booth with the Youth Fellowship in charge of pony rides. Thirty members and friends expressed their appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Whittemore for a pleasant day.

The Dutch Circle will meet at the home of Mrs. Frank Pulse on Monday evening, June 13.

The Sunday school of the Reformed Church will hold its annual Children's Day program at 11 a. m. Sunday.

The fire company will sponsor a games party on Friday, June 10, in the evening.

Membership Drive Pleases Teetsel

That 76 per cent of the Kingston Chamber of Commerce members have already renewed their subscriptions for 1949-50 was reported by L. J. MacAvery at a meeting of the membership committee Tuesday night. In addition a total of 40 new memberships have been received to date. Members of the committee agreed to contact the remainder of the prospective members before the open membership meeting set for Tuesday, June 14.

President Robert E. Teetsel, who attended the special meeting of the membership committee, stated that results of the campaign to date are very encouraging and indicate a substantial increase in the total number of members. He continued, "that what we need now are suggestions as to activities to make the chamber program of the greatest possible value in expanding the total amount of business transacted."

HIGHLAND NEWS

Highland, June 8—Mrs. Thomas Holland and son arrived last week by plane from Burbank, Calif., to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schom-maker.

Mr. and Mrs. Bertram Cottine and son of West Haverstraw were weekend guests of his mother.

Miss Margery Mellor of Albany returned Monday night after a week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mellor.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Van Wagner, daughter and son and Mrs. George Boettger, Caldwell, N. J., visited Mr. and Mrs. G. Hallock Mackey Saturday.

The Monday afternoon bridge club met with Mrs. George DuBois with Mrs. A. Jerome Pratt and Miss Eliza Raymond playing for Mrs. Kellor and Mrs. Franklin Weiker.

Mrs. Charles Wells and Miss Helen Wells of Newburgh were Sunday supper guests of Miss Eliza Raymond.

Children's Day exercises will be held in the Presbyterian Church at 11 o'clock Sunday morning. Members of the Sunday school will take part in the program.

Carl Hasbrouck of Wilmington, Del., spent Sunday night at the home of his mother, Mrs. Mabel Hasbrouck.

Thursday afternoon the Girl Scouts will hold a picnic at Palmer Park. This is the intermediate group in charge of Mrs. Gladys Meurs, Mrs. Joseph Sagarese, Mrs. Michael Nardone, Mrs. George Wilkow and Mrs. Everett Lyons.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon F. Wilcox left Tuesday for Binghamton to visit their daughter and son-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Nowicki. Mr. Wilcox is on vacation from the Swartz store, Poughkeepsie. Before returning they will visit other parts of the state.

Mrs. Samuel D. Farnham entertains the U. D. Society Saturday afternoon at her home on Washington avenue.

Miss Emily Lent read another chapter in the book, "China, Twilight or Dawn," for discussion at the meeting of the Study Club Monday evening with Mrs. Bertram Cottine. The rummage sale in October was talked about. Mrs. Franklin Weiker will be the one to telephone regarding notices to be called for. The next meeting, June 20, will be the closing meeting at the home of Mrs. Matthew P. Busch. It is hoped Mrs. William A. Dutton, Albuquerque, N. M., will be present. She is the wife of a former minister and was one of the organizers of the group. This is to be an open meeting.

Mrs. Oliver Tillson assisted Mrs. Cottine as hostess.

The Rev. Oscar Jelsina spent a couple of days in Skaneateles this week attending a meeting of the United Promotion Committee of the Presbyterian Church of which he is a member.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Clarke, Miss Carol Clarke spent from Friday to Sunday with relatives at Bayport, L. I.

Four members of the Westminster Fellowship plan to attend a summer conference at Poughkeepsie, N. Y. They are Charlotte Short, Sally Thompson, Doris Mills, Lorraine DeZart, Philip Shunk will go to the conference at Darton Lake and Miss Emily Lent to the conference for training in church leadership at Oak Point.

Mrs. Edward Curry is a patient at Vassar Hospital where she underwent an operation Monday.

The closing meeting of the local Home Bureau featured a covered dish picnic supper at the home of Mrs. Jacob L. Busick, upper Grand street, Monday evening. At this time members expressed their wishes and plans for next year.

To decide a program meeting will be held June 14. There were 40 members present and Mrs. William Russell, the chairman, presided. Friday a tour open to anyone will include stops at the Busick home and Carl Jenke and Philip Wilkows. In some places the gardens will be of interest as well as the rearrangement of living rooms. The lunch will be served at Hasbrouck Hall in Modena. Those travelling will take sandwiches and additional items of food will be served by the local committee. From there the party will go to New Paltz.

Three children were baptized at the worship service in the Methodist Church Sunday morning: Jean Dapp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Dapp, Carl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Althausen; Judith Mae, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Doyl, Poughkeepsie. The mothers of the last two named are sisters, the former Misses Shirley and Audrey Filkins, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Filkins.

is a form of scurrility, is there. "Mendacity" was the other word which he specifically resented. That means "a habit of lying." I stand on my charge of mendacity.

In the first case it was my well-founded belief that Pearson's motive in approaching my syndicate with conciliatory gestures was the fact that my lawyers had prepared a completely devastating answer giving abundant details of his fakery and mendacity. The filing of this answer had been postponed more than once at Pearson's request. At no time did I or my syndicate seek Pearson or the Bell Syndicate or propose any compromise. A published statement that the case was closed by a letter of apology from me to Pearson is a lie. It is likewise untrue that I agreed and then violated the agreement not to mention Pearson in print. If the source of those statements be what I think it is, they are further proof of the mendacity which I have referred to.

I hold that not only public officials such as Forrester but all citizens should be protected against the blackguardism which has become a serious menace in the last few years, especially on the air and especially on Sunday nights. I hold that it is the duty of a free press to expose and terminate this evil, even at the risk of foul personal abuse and at the great cost of resisting lawsuits having ulterior purposes. False and abusive propaganda has reached such a pitch that it seriously impairs the freedom of political judgment which American citizens should enjoy. It impairs their freedom of expression on issues of foreign policy. This time I will meet Pearson in court and present proof that he is a lying blackguard.

Sand Pays All of Town's Bills

Sedgeford, England (AP)—This Norfolk village runs on sand. The 700 or so villagers haven't paid a penny in local taxes in 15 years. The tax rate is fixed at eightpence on a pound's worth of real estate roughly dollars 3.50 a hundred. But it hasn't been collected. Sedgeford has paid all its expenses and made enough extra to refurbish the war memorial and start a new athletic field by selling natural resources—sand from a village-owned sandpit.

100,000 Persons Applaud King on His 53rd Birthday

London, June 9 (AP)—More than 100,000 persons jammed central London today to hail their king on his official 53rd birthday with a revival of prewar pomp and military splendor.

Under dark skies the colorful, traditional trooping of the colors was staged for the first time since 1939.

One thousand hobbies controlled the crowds, eager for their first chance to greet King George VI since his illness.

They massed 30 and 40 deep from Buckingham Palace along the mall to the parade ground behind Whitehall, the government quarter.

The king's birthday was December 14, but the nation celebrates it officially on June 9, because June weather is better suited to such a celebration.

Queen Elizabeth and Princess Margaret first swung through the palace gates in an open carriage, let, drove out from the main gates in another carriage drawn by two grey horses. He was erect and soldierly.

Behind him, on riding horses, came Princess Elizabeth in a navy blue uniform, and the king's brother, the Duke of Gloucester. The household cavalry escorted the king over sanded streets to the parade ground—a mass of scarlet, white and gleaming silver.

The king dismounted there and took the salute as the Royal Guards, in scarlet and blue uniforms and wearing their towering black bearskin headresses, marched past.

Excited by the crowd and pagantry, Elizabeth's horse, "Winston," got skittish during the ceremony. He backed and danced but the princess, although riding side saddle, kept control. Later, the king congratulated her on her riding.

Onions Give Flavor

Onion gives a tangy flavor to salad dressings and is particularly good with spring vegetable combinations. Just add half a small speckled onion to the container of French dressing, cover tightly again, and allow to stand overnight. Remove the onion the next day.

Shortened Sessions Are Called Evil

Albany, N. Y., June 9 (AP)—The State Education Department has sounded a new warning against what it calls the "twin evils" of shortened school sessions and overcrowded classrooms.

Associate Commissioner Harry V. Gilson wrote local school officials yesterday the conditions "may in some cases be temporarily necessary," but added: "The important thing to remember is that they are still evils, that they solve no educational problem, that in every case they are harmful to children, and thus to society."

He attributed the conditions to "the situation created by increased enrollments and higher birth rates since the war."

Everything possible should be done to meet the problem, he wrote, "in the only way it can be met effectively, by providing satisfactory facilities."

He said, however, the department "appreciates the very real difficulties created by a lag in school construction."

Many communities are "understandably reluctant" to build schools at present inflated prices, Gilson told a reporter.

But if "pupils' welfare must be sacrificed because new schools are not built," he added, "that's a pretty stiff price to pay."

The size of classes and length of sessions are not prescribed by state law.

The department recommends an average class size of from 25 to 30 pupils for the grades and from 20 to 25 for high schools.

Five-hour class periods are recommended for the first six grades and five and one-half hour sessions for grades seven through 12.

Local Methodist Pastors Attend Stewards' Meeting

Several local clergymen attended the 62nd regular session of the district stewards' meeting of the Kingston District, New York Conference of the Methodist Church Wednesday at the Treadwell Methodist Church.

In attendance were the Rev. Fred H. Deming, the Rev. Merrill C. Johnson, St. James Methodist; the Rev. William R. Peckham, Clinton Avenue Methodist; the Rev. Ivan F. Gosso, Trinity Methodist; the Rev. Fred E. Stine, Fort Ewen Methodist; and the Rev. Herbert Killinger, former pastor of Trinity Methodist Church.

The Rev. Dr. Burton F. Tarr, superintendent Kingston district, presided. Laymen and ministers representing 101 churches were present.

The Federal Reserve System began operation on November 16, 1914.

Boy Slams Door Of Refrigerator; 3 Children Die

Walnut Ridge, Ark., June 9 (AP)—The Arkansas state police reported today a 10-year-old boy said he slammed shut the door of an unused ice box, causing deaths of three other children.

Police Lt. H. R. Peterson identified the boy as James (Buddy) Chesser, uncle of one of the victims.

The police officer quoted James as saying the children were playing "I-spy," when all three climbed into the old-fashioned wooden box last Friday.

Then, Peterson continued, the boy yelled:

"He shut the door of the box and was unable to get it open."

"My mother called me then to go to the store. I was scared. I ran home and went to the store. Then I forgot."

The victims were James Delbert Chastain, two, and Joyce Ann Chastain, nine, children of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Chastain and Shirley Ann Ramsey, six, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ramsey.

Young Chesser was an uncle of the Ramsey girl.

The old ice box was at the home of the Chastain children's parents in a farm community near Walnut Ridge. The other children lived nearby.

Mrs. Chastain discovered the children in the box when she returned home from work in the cotton fields.

Her son and the Ramsey girl were dead of suffocation. Joyce Ann Chastain died early Saturday.

Chesser was held in custody temporarily.

Peterson said he doubted there'd be charges.

"He's too young to do anything with even if it had been deliberate—and I don't believe it was," Peterson said.

State Death Rate Is at Record Low

Albany, N. Y., June 9 (AP)—New York State's death rate dropped to an all-time low for the first quarter in 1949.

The birth rate, for the same period, was the second highest on record.

The State Health Department yesterday reported the death rate as 11 per 1,000 population. The birth rate was 20.6 per 1,000. The previous low death rate for the first quarter was 11.7 per 1,000 in 1945. The record birth rate is 24 per 1,000, recorded for the first three months of 1947.

New first quarter lows were registered this year in deaths from tuberculosis, 32.9 per 100,000; syphilis, 7.8; influenza, 1.1; pneumonia, 38.6; artery diseases 24.7; nephritis, 40.3, and hernia 7.8.

The death rate from heart diseases, 434.8 per 100,000 population was the lowest in seven years.

Early day Hudson Bay Co. men had to be able to carry a 90-pound pack, plus food and sleeping equipment 80 miles in four days.

*"I was accepted—but
I'll tell you about it tonight—
Someone else may want to use the line"*

What a day—graduation and acceptance by her mother's alma mater all within a few hours. And what a good party-line neighbor this teen-ager is. She's learned that a big part of growing up is having consideration for others.

With people sharing the same telephone line, this means the spacing of calls instead of making a whole series one after the other. It means answering the phone as promptly as possible. It means cheerfully giving up the line in an emergency, and it means hanging up—gently—when the line's already in use.

Many of our customers would like to have a better grade of service than is now generally available—such as individual or two-party line.

We are working hard to provide the necessary switchboards, cables and other equipment—and we're keeping a careful record of all such applications, which will be filled just as soon as possible.

Chemical Union
Wins Increase for
2,000 at Oak Ridge

Oak Ridge, Tenn., June 9 (AP)—The C.I.O. United Chemical Workers won an eight cents an hour wage increase for 2,000 atomic plant employees here today, thus averting a threatened strike.

A new contract was agreed upon by officials of the union and of Carbide and Carbon Chemicals Corporation as the old contract expired at midnight last night. It assured continued production of the vital atomic bomb element—uranium 235—in the huge gaseous diffusion production plant here. The C.I.O. members were scheduled to vote at two meetings today on ratification of the new agreement. Their average wage under the new contract will be $1.67 hourly. The union had sought a 25-cent increase. Carbide also is negotiating with the A.F.L. Atomic Trades and Labor Council toward a new contract for 800 employees of Oak Ridge national laboratory. The A.F.L. workers receive an average wage of $1.53 an hour under a contract which expires July 1.

Legion to Sponsor
Fireworks Display

Woodstock, June 9—Plans are in the making for the first annual fireworks display to be staged by Woodstock Post No. 1028, American Legion, on the Bearsville flats, Sunday evening, July 3.

According to members of the committee arranging the event, they have signed a contract with the Legion Fireworks Company of Beacon to put on one of the most elaborate displays ever given by any organization in the Hudson valley.

In view of the immense crowd expected to attend, the committee has secured several adjacent fields to the grounds where the fireworks are to be shot off, to provide for the parking of hundreds of cars.

Other events are also being arranged including music and games. Among the features will be the ritualistic burning of old flags with patriotic services. All those wishing to dispose of old and torn flags may get in touch with a member of the committee. In charge of arrangements for the celebration are Joe Friedberg, chairman; John Wolven, Erwin Holzman, Wesley O'Brien, Douglas P. Frankling, Robert Builey, Joseph Wagner, David Dodd, Harry Kutzschbach, Robert Nussbaum, Paul Joyce, Henry Grazer, Everett Cashdollar, Harry Avery, John Peper, Clayton C. Harder, George Heinselman, Harold Riley, Thomas H. Carey, William Klippel, John Richner, George Hopper, Ben Builey, Sterling Wolven and William MacReady.

Village Notes

Woodstock, June 9—Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Speicher entertained at their home Tuesday afternoon for Allen and Gladys Delano. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rosen, Mr. and Mrs. Houston Richards, Wilma Hervey and Nan Mason.

Mrs. Sherwood M. Hard, Nyack, is convalescing after a recent illness at the home of her son George and Mrs. Hard.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Ludins have returned for the summer season.

'Talking Congress' Is Label Given By Public Printer

Washington, June 9 (AP)—This is the talkingest, question askingest, bill introducingest Congress of all time.

This is no snap judgment handed down by our weary reporters. It has been proved—by statistics—in testimony before the House Appropriations Committee.

Take congressional conversation. John J. Deviny, public printer, had come up to Capitol Hill to explain why it took so much money to run the government printing office.

One reason, he said, is because Congress talks so much. Normally, he said, during the first two months of a session of Congress, the "congressional record" will average 75 pages a day.

"The first 65 issues of the 81st Congress," said Deviny sadly, "have averaged 1169 pages."

Take the Appropriations Committee. It talks so much about saving the taxpayers money that it costs the taxpayers money. So far, Deviny said, testimony before the various appropriations subcommittees has filled 17,646 pages. (This does not include the 28 pages needed for Deviny's testimony on why the printing cost is so high).

How about the bills. So far Congress has had 10,588 bills introduced. That's more, Deviny said, than the last Congress introduced in six months. It has taken 48,263 pages just to print them.

But Congress isn't merely talking. It's also asking questions. If there is anything a congressman wants to know, he can call the Legislative Reference Service of the Library of Congress.

Dr. Luther H. Evans, librarian of Congress, estimates that this year the service will try to answer 22,000 congressional questions. That, on the average, is around 40 questions for each senator and representative.

Congressional curiosity, Dr. Evans said, has soared phenomenally. For a comparison: Put this year's 22,000 queries up against 1925's. In that far off, non-questioning time, Congress asked only 850 questions.

H. K. Knaust Gets Medical Degree

New York, June 9 (Special)—Herman Karl Knaust, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Knaust, of West Camp received the degree of Doctor of Medicine Wednesday at the 90th commencement exercises of New York Medical College, Flower and Fifth Avenue Hospitals, to take place at the New York Academy of Medicine.

The M. D. degree will be conferred on 95 men and women by Dr. J. A. W. Hetrick, dean of the college, after the traditional Hip-

Mary Ashton (left), 20, told Pittsburgh police she was forced to live in terror for a month as the "prisoner" of Joseph Yeager (right), 22, son of a packing house president. Yeager is accused of slashing and beating Betty Donovan to death last month with a broken bottle. Miss Ashton told police she suspected Yeager of the crime, and he threatened her and kept her prisoner.

poetic oath is administered to them. Gold diplomas will be awarded to the 10 surviving members of the class of 1899, commemorating their 50 years of practice.

Knaust received his pre-medical training at Johns Hopkins University.

Newark, N. J., June 9 (AP)—John

Taylor slipped on a rug in his third-floor apartment yesterday. He slid right out a window and landed on the sidewalk. His injuries—bruised arms, and legs.

It is estimated that if the world's entire population were to start counting the number of atoms in one drop of water, it would take 10,000 years to finish the job.

Cooperative Backs Pricing Formula

Syracuse, N. Y., June 9 (AP)—A proposed milk pricing formula with a "contra-seasonal price decline check" is supported by the Metropolitan Cooperative Milk Producers Bargaining Agency.

The suggested formula was endorsed yesterday by the agency's delegate body. It would make dairy farm costs a direct factor in determining fluid milk prices paid producers in the six-state New York milkshed.

The delegates authorized the agency executive committee to petition the U. S. Agriculture Department for an early public hearing on the proposal.

The proposed formula was submitted to the bargaining agency Wednesday by the Dairyman's League Cooperative Association, largest of 50 participating cooperatives.

The price decline check would guarantee that the price for class 1-A (fluid) milk from August through December would not be less than the July price. It also would guarantee that the price from February through June would not be less than the January price.

Delegates said these provisions would function as a guard against abnormal market conditions.

Buses for the outing to be held by the Kingston Day unit of the Home Bureau will leave Henry street and Broadway, Friday at 9 o'clock.

Economic Expansion

Warsaw, Poland (AP)—Ambassador Oskar Lange says Poland's industrial production should increase from 85 to 95 per cent over present output during the new six-year plan starting before the end of 1949. Lange predicted agricultural production would rise by 35 to 45 per cent over the 1938-49 figure. Lange, first of speakers in a series of Poland's economic recovery arranged by Radio Polskie, said Poland's total production in 1948 was 40 per cent higher than before the war. He forecast huge industrial expansion and modernization during the next several years and broad training of technical workers. Lange, now acting in the work of the Communist United Workers Party, was Poland's first envoy to the United States. He still retains the rank of ambassador and often attends United Nations sessions.

Do You Remember

by
SOPHIE MILLER

There is still very much local interest shown in the Ulster County Gazette printed in Kingston on January 4, 1800, covering the funeral of George Washington. Among those in Kingston who have copies of this famous Gazette are the Senate House Museum, which has a number of them, Francis J. Dunne of 359 Abel street has one framed in glass on both sides. Miss Kate Hummel of Port Ewen and Max Oppenheimer of the Board of Public Works in Kingston also have copies.

The Library of Congress from their periodical division in Washington keeps me informed as to any news on this famous paper. It is now said, "Another original is now in the American Antiquarian Society, Worcester, Mass. Librarians watched many years for an original, but it was not until November 1930 that one was found which is now in the file of the Library of Congress."

For those who are interested in this Kingston paper, the Ulster County Gazette, according to the Library of Congress, was established May 5, 1788 at Kingston, N. Y., by Samuel Freer and Son. It was a weekly supporting the Federal party. Publication continued until 1803, when the title was changed to Ulster Gazette and the publisher was Samuel S. Freer, the "son" of the earlier partnership. Reproductions of the issue for January 4, 1800, are well-known to librarians and dealers in old books through the great number of reprints that are scattered over every part of the country. There are more than 70 such reproductions, often differing from each other only in minor details. Almost every private owner of one of these honestly believes that he has an original copy. At the same time, only a few original copies of other numbers of the same paper are in existence. The reproduction of the Jan. 4, 1800, began perhaps as early as 1825. These early reprints were made in smaller numbers. The paper and type used represented a somewhat more careful imitation of a newspaper printed in 1800 than do those of later years. The Centennial Exposition of 1876 in Philadelphia saw the beginning of the wholesale output of the reprints. At least one printing firm had a regular contract for supplying them and they were sold on the exposition grounds by the armful as historical souvenirs. In 1877 a centennial celebration in Kingston offered a similar opportunity. Most of the reprints from 1876 to date are in clear, modern type, and on machine-made paper, calendered, thin, and brittle. The commercial value of the reprints does not exceed 50 cents.

There are details of eleven lists given which can be applied to those feeling they have the original. The first is that: It should be printed on the "laid" paper used in 1800, handmade from rags, soft, pliable, and rough in texture.

Volunteers Aid Police
New Delhi, India (AP)—Indian provinces have built up a volunteer corps of 1,030,695 to help the police maintain law and order. Volunteers, who generally are commanded by police officers, are given semi-military training. They are called upon in times of emergency when police strength is found to be inadequate. The corps is open to members of all religious communities and political groups.

The trade mark everybody knows goes way back to 1840. Peter Ballantine, testing the first Ballantine over a century ago, took one drink to judge PURITY, a second for BODY, a third for FLAVOR. STUART L. PARKS

The promotion of Stuart L. Parks to assistant director of physical education at Trinity College, Hartford, Conn., effective in September has been announced by G. Keith Fuston, president. Parks recently was named head track coach at Trinity and last fall was given complete charge of the intra-mural athletic program at the college. He also has helped develop Trinity's new physical education program. He joined the Trinity staff in 1946.

Vaudeville Show At The Broadway

Ernie and Dolly Burke, real western rodeo stars who have for many years starred in far-west outdoor rodeos, will bring their trick roping and bull whip snapping to the stage of The Broadway Theatre on Friday and Saturday, June 10 and 11, as stars of the five-act professional vaudeville show.

One matinee and two evening shows will be staged daily in addition to the screen attraction "The Last Bandit" with William Elliot. Lending an international flavor to the program will be The Robins, a fast-moving singing novelty act featuring Ferris, billed as "A Spirited Frenchman" and Jennet, "The Dancing Scotch Lassie and Her Accordion." Phil Lawrence and Mitzi, two attractive young dancers, will present a cavalcade of dance styles.

Master of ceremonies will be Buddy Walker, a comedian with a fast line of patter, unusual whistling ability, and several good impersonations, including one of Ted Lewis.

Fifth act will be Anthony, Allyn and Dodge, a comedy dance unit of two men and a girl billed as "Comedy Exponents of the Dance." William Livingston, winner of the Mr. Song of 1949 contest also will appear on the vaudeville show, Sunday in Bayonne, N. J. he will appear for a tryout with a name band and also on the vaudeville show. The following week he will have a television try-out in New York city.

Considers A-Bomb

London, (AP)—Bernard Shaw has written a play about the world after atomic bombing. It's called "Fur-Fetched Fables" and will be published before August. So the 92-year-old playwright told a reporter who saw the play listed in Shaw's credit in the 1949 edition of "Who's Who" and telephoned him to find out about it. Shaw's biography in the book, supplied by himself, still gives his recreation as "being past 90."

Pine Knoll Camp To Open June 27 At DeWitt Lake

Indications are that another banner turnout of youngsters will attend this year's Pine Knoll Day Camp at DeWitt Lake, Louis H. Schafer said today.

Registrations have been coming in fast for the seventh annual camp. Lou said today in announcing plans for the opening on Monday, June 27.

Two buses will leave for the camp on opening day from the Y. M. C. A. on Broadway and the other from the Crown street terminal. Both buses will leave at 9 a. m.

Two instructors already announced for this year's camp are John Vertetis and Miss Mary Darling. Vertetis, who will graduate from Cortland State Teachers College this month, will be completing his second year as camp assistant. Miss Darling is now in the physical education department of the Ulster public schools. She was graduated from Cortland in 1948.

All junior and senior counselors are expected to meet soon with Schafer to make final plans for the camp's program. All will be given a short leadership instruction course.

Parents desiring information regarding the camp may call the "Y" office, 1100, between 9 a. m. and 10 p. m.

Fruit Salad Dessert

For a pretty fruit salad dessert, peel oranges so that no white membrane remains. Cut in circles. Arrange the orange slices on a bed of watercress, wheel-fashion, and center with a square of cream cheese and ripe strawberries that have not been hulled. A good dressing for this dessert salad is a mixture of mayonnaise and sour cream, or mayonnaise folded into sweetened whipped cream.

Agencies Warned Of Specific Proof In Speeding Cases

Albany, N. Y., June 9 (AP)—Law enforcement agencies were warned today to support speeding charges with specific proof that greater speed is not permitted on the highway involved.

Mortimer Kassell, counsel to the commissioner of motor vehicles, Clifford J. Fletcher, said the notice was issued because of a recent Court of Appeals decision.

The high court unanimously upheld the dismissal of a speeding charge against Chester B. Smith of (517 Windsor Parkway) Oceanville, L. I. Smith contended the state must prove specifically that the state traffic commission had not increased the speed limit beyond the statutory 50 miles-per-hour limit for the stretch of Route 27 where he was arrested by state police.

Under Section 56 of the State Motor Vehicle and Traffic Law, the maximum speed of public highways is set at 50 miles per hour "except where a greater speed is permitted by the state traffic commission."

Kassell said the traffic commis-

Narcotic Suspects Escape Ambush

New York, June 9 (AP)—After an exchange of shots an automobile carrying suspected narcotics dealers escaped early today from an ambush set by city detectives and U. S. Treasury agents in lower Manhattan.

A package containing four ounces of opium was tossed from the fleeing car into the street.

A detective was grazed by a bullet fired by one of the fugitives.

Six officers had taken up positions in 15th street, between First and Second avenues, on a tip that narcotics peddlers planned a sale in the vicinity around midnight.

The shooting started when a man in a suspected parked automobile fired at an approaching detective. The car sped off, and the officers fired at it but failed to halt it. The car contained at least two men.

The United States has almost doubled its pre-war output of narcotics. Production in India and China, the other two biggest producers, was greater last year than before the war.

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE
Give Some Thought To Opening Lead

BY WILLIAM M. McKENNEY
America's Card Authority
Written for NEA Service

"It might seem odd that I should select as a lesson hand a six-spade contract which can be defeated two tricks if the right opening lead is made. However, there are two good lessons here.

I have talked to you often about selecting the right opening lead, and have said that in a large percentage of hands, analysis and elimination will make the correct lead quite obvious. The natural opening in this hand is the king of hearts, but that cannot be correct. West holds seven hearts, and his partner has bid as if he held four, certainly not less than three. Therefore, it will can be expected that North or South is void.

Is a club the best opening? Let us analyze that. West's partner has doubled six spades, and he has doubled on high cards which are more apt to be in diamonds than in clubs. West's fourth club may be very valuable to protect that suit.

If West held three diamonds to the queen, maybe the club lead should be selected, but with only two diamonds West's opening should be the diamond queen, East and West will take the first three tricks and set the contract.

Now we will look at the hand from declarer's standpoint. Suppose that West does open the king of hearts. Declarer trumps, and now his only chance to make the contract is to get rid of two diamonds on the club suit. If he cashes the ace of clubs and leads the ten, and West has the queen, West will cover. Then declarer will get only one discard, not enough to make the contract.

South's only hope, therefore, is that East has the queen of clubs. He must play a small spade to dummy's ace and return a club. If East plays low, South finesses the ten. If that holds the trick, he then plays the ace of clubs, followed by a small spade to dummy's nine-spot, which will pick up the outstanding trump. Now he can discard two of his diamonds on the two good clubs, thereby losing only one diamond trick and making his contract.

Fish Fillets

Be sure to dry fish fillets after you have washed them, using a paper or some other soft towel. To give the fillets a delicious crisp crust, dip them in slightly beaten egg and cracker crumbs before frying, or in milk and corn meal. Lemon wedges are a "must" when it comes to serving the fillets.

Merida, Mexico, June 9 (AP)—A nine-foot long plane, marked "in English," "Property of Army Air Forces," was recovered from the sen yesterday by a fishing boat. A gasoline-powered craft, it was found in the water about two miles off Cozumel Island, on the east coast of the Yucatan peninsula. The plane had a wingspread of only six feet. There was no evidence it carried a pilot. It apparently had been guided by radio.

Robeson Says He Plans to Testify

Moscow, June 9 (AP)—Singer Paul Robeson told the Soviet Academy of Science yesterday he would return to the United States to testify at the trial of Communist party officials in New York. He said the men were being "judged for their faithfulness to the American working class."

The negro baritone addressed the academy at a meeting commemorating the 150th anniversary of the death of Writer Alexander Pushkin. Izvestia, official government newspaper, called his address a "moving speech."

"It is difficult to say how deeply I am touched and moved by the fact I am again on Soviet soil," he said.

Robeson said he represented progressive Americans and millions of oppressed negroes.

Kingston Elks Are To Attend State Parley in Albany

With Grand Exalted Ruler George I. Hall and Past Grand Exalted Ruler Judge James T. Hallinan, Justice of the Supreme Court, New York state, present to participate in the patriotic demonstration, the 37th annual convention of the New York State Elks Association will be held in Albany on June 16, 17 and 18. More than 1,500 delegates and thousands of visitors are expected to be in Albany as guests of Albany Lodge 49, host to the convention. This is the first time that a grand exalted ruler and a past grand exalted ruler have attended a New York State Elks convention.

There will be four highlights in a series of convention events, the big patriotic demonstration, to be held on Friday night, June 17, on the steps of the state Capitol; the golf tourney to be held at the Normanside Country Club Friday morning; the ritualistic contest at the K. of C. hall, also on Friday morning and the colorful parade to be held on Saturday afternoon with more than 50 bands and representatives from virtually every Elks lodge in the state participating.

The patriotic demonstration staged against a background of "Old Glory" is expected to be the most colorful event of the convention. In addition to Grand Exalted Ruler Hall and Past Grand Exalted Ruler Hallinan, the speakers will be Mayor Erastus Corning of Albany and Daniel H. Prior, past exalted ruler of Albany Lodge.

The convention will open on Thursday morning, June 16, with the registration of delegates. From that moment until the "grand finale" at the Elks Club on Saturday night, there will be something doing—visits to Albany's public building and historic spots, entertainments for the women folk and carnival time every night at the Elks Club.

The first business session of the convention will be held in the state assembly chamber on Friday morning, June 18, with the election of officers for the coming year. At the closing session of Saturday morning the Elks Lodge of Sorrow will convene. These memorial services for the departed members of the Elks of New York state will be most impressive. The Rt. Rev. William A. Scully, D.D., bishop coadjutor of the Albany diocese, will deliver the memorial address. The convention will close with the "grand finale" Saturday night at the Elks Club when awards will be made to the winners in the ritualistic and golf contests, as well as to the parade winners.

Some types of banana must be cooked before they can be eaten.

Australia Gains Immigrants Canberra (AP)—Australia added 48,000 people to her population by immigration in 1948. Government figures show that 65,731 persons came to Australia during the year with the idea of living here permanently. In 1948, however, 17,000 people left Australia planning to be away one year or longer. These 17,000 people are counted as losses to Australia.

Good Taste Today

By Emily Post

(Author of "Etiquette," "Children Are People," etc.)

WEDDING PREPARATIONS

A mother asks this question: "As we are of very moderate means and live simply, would it be in bad taste for us to give our daughter a wedding such as the following: White satin dress and long veil for her and pastel colored dresses and picture hats for her four bridesmaids? My husband thinks it would be all wrong in our position although he's quite willing to make the necessary sacrifices in order to make her happy."

On the question of taste, it would be entirely proper to have the kind of wedding you describe if the dresses do not give the impression of being too expensive. But on the question of cost, you will have to decide whether the happiness of your daughter will be great enough to compensate her father for such an outlay.

An Engagement Angle

Dear Mrs. Post: I've always been under the impression that even though the family of a newly-engaged son is supposed to have the first visit, a definite invitation should be given by the girl's family if the two families are strangers. Otherwise, wouldn't it be rather awkward for his family to call on strangers, and awkward for her family to have strangers call on them unexpectedly?

Answer: Although according to convention, the man's family—especially when strangers—are expected to go immediately to call on the girl's family, my advice has always been not to stand on ceremony and that if necessary, it is quite proper for the girl's family to invite the man's family to come to tea or lunch with them. It is always best to let friendliness solve a situation that is becoming awkward.

Flowers With Mourning Dress
Dear Mrs. Post: Is it improper to wear a white gardenia on a black dress during a period of mourning? Are white flowers as well as all others tabu at this time?

Answer: A single white flower without ribbon, or a bunch of violets, is entirely correct with mourning at any hour.

Who announces the engagement when a girl is an orphan? This and many other questions which arise regarding engagements are discussed in Mrs. Post's leaflet, E-1 "Announcing the Engagement." To obtain a copy, send five cents in coin and a stamped self-addressed envelope to her, c/o this paper, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y. Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail.

Windham Girl Learns Of Florist Trade

Miss Barbara Thompson, 22, of Windham, who has been always interested in flowers and flower arrangements, is featured in the June publication of the Woman's Home Companion.

During the recent summer seasons, Miss Thompson was in charge of flower arrangements in the family's hotel, the Thompson

House in Windham. Later, the magazine states, she studied home economics at Morrisville Agricultural and Technical Institute. She worked as a dietitian for a year in the cafeterias of Hunter College and R.E.I. However, she still was interested in flower arrangements.

A cigarette ad featuring Judith Garden, owner of a top New York city flower store, inspired Miss Thompson to ask for a job. She got the job.

Several photos accompany the story in the magazine concerning Miss Thompson's daily routine at the flower shop.

Mushroom Soup

Condensed cream of mushroom soup makes a quick sauce for dried beef. A half can of the soup will be enough to sauce about a quarter pound of the beef. Serve over noodles, toast, or fluffy mashed potato, and sprinkle with a little finely minced parsley for an attractive garnish.

$100,000 Fire Hits Apalachin Plant

Apalachin, N. Y., June 9 (AP)—A $100,000 fire leveled a furniture factory and swept a lumberyard last night in this Toga county community.
Two automobiles parked across the road were destroyed and a railroad freight car was damaged before the fire was brought under control in a three-hour battle. The cause was undetermined.
The loss was estimated by George Palmer of the Frank Palmer Co., Inc., owner of the factory and yard. He said the fire apparently had broken out in a kilo drying room of the three-story frame plant.

Local volunteer firemen were aided by firemen from nearby Owego, Newark Valley, Vestal and Endicott.

Action Deferred
Washington, June 9 (AP)—A House Administration Subcommittee voted 4 to 3 today to defer action on anti-poll tax legislation. The group decided to wait until the House Judiciary Committee has time to consider a proposed constitutional amendment allowing the states to decide whether to outlaw poll taxes. However, the full administration committee will review the subcommittee action next Wednesday and may reverse it.

Babich Goes On Trial Before Milwaukee Jury

Milwaukee, June 9 (AP)—Milton Babich, 29, went on trial today for the gunshot slaying of Patricia Birmingham, his wife's 16-year-old sister.

Testimony in his first degree murder trial opened in Judge Herbert Steffes' municipal courtroom before a jury of 11 married men and a single girl.

The jurors were selected from 52 veniremen in a day-long session yesterday. Four of the panel were excused for cause, eight were struck by the state's peremptory challenges and 13 by the defense.

Nine of the jury's 11 male members are fathers of from one to four children. A housewife, mother of two children, was picked as an alternate juror.

Judge Steffes told the jury, "We are going to insulate you completely from the outside world. You may not read the newspapers, nor may you listen to the radio."

He cautioned the jurors not to discuss the case—"not even among yourselves. Then he ordered them locked up for the night."

Babich, in statement released by the district attorney, admitted the shooting of Patricia, but claimed it was an accident. He said he produced a gun intending to frighten Patricia so she would not reveal that her sister, Kathleen, was pregnant. Babich maintains Patricia was shot during a struggle for the gun. That was on March 10.

On March 17, Babich and Kathleen eloped to Michigan. Three days later, Patricia's body, tied to a concrete building block, was fished from the Milwaukee river.

Dry Brook Church Has Kittle Memorial Picture

Dry Brook, June 9—A special service was held at the Methodist Church Sunday when an oil painting was dedicated in memory of Mrs. Emily Todd Kittle, who had been a devoted and life-long member of the congregation.

The painting was presented to the church by Mrs. Kittle's three children, Edwin H. Kittle of Kingston; Mrs. Charles Everett of Kingston; and Mrs. Beulah Thompson of West.

The portrayal of "Christ Blessing Little Children" is the work of John Parker of Springfield, Mass., a well-known painter in the field of religious art.

Program for the dedication was as follows:
Prelude—
—Mrs. David Todd, organist
Hymn—Congregation
Invocation—
—The Rev. G. B. Moody, pastor
Solo, "Voice in the Wilderness"
—Charles Everett, accompanied by Charles Thompson

Remarks in memory of Mrs. Kittle—Mrs. Arthur White Presentation of memorial—
—Charles Thompson, grandson
Acceptance—Mrs. Cecil Graham
Dedication—
—The Rev. George B. Moody
Duet, "Jesus Loves Me"—
—Evelyn and Mona Fairbairn
Offertory solo, "Bless This House"—
—Charles Everett
Sermon, "Of Such Is the Kingdom"—The Rev. Mr. Moody
Hymn—Congregation
Benediction.

New Kind of Dessert

For a new kind of dessert, put a cup of drained canned fruit cocktail in a container, add a cup of sour cream and two cups of cut marshmallows; mix well, cover, and allow to stand in the refrigerator overnight. Serve chilled in sherbet glasses to six to eight people.

Britain Declares Arrest Is Legal

London, June 9 (AP)—Britain told Poland yesterday that the arrest of Gerhart Eisler aboard a Polish ship was legal while the ship was in British waters.

At the same time Britain protested to Poland against refusal of Polish authorities aboard the ship, the Batory, to surrender Eisler voluntarily.

The British note was in answer to a Polish protest claiming Eisler's arrest violated international law.

Eisler who stowed away on the Batory at New York while free on bail, was en route to Russian-occupied Germany when arrested at Southampton, England, at the request of the United States.

A British court later refused a U. S. request to extradite the Communist leader on the grounds that his offense, making false statements on a passport application, was not extraditable.

Eisler now is reported in the Soviet sector of Berlin.

Bevin Says Pact Strongest Shield

Blackpool, Eng., June 9 (AP)—Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin described the Atlantic Pact today as a western shield against the biggest army in the world—Russia's.

"It is the largest army, the greatest power in the world that is mobilized today," Bevin told the annual Labor Party Conference, and I want to see that brought to an end, not by war but by example, by remaining firm ourselves."

Obviously referring to the Soviet Union, the foreign secretary said: "There has never been a dictator in the history of this world who has not talked peace when he had been preparing for war."

"Do not be misled," Bevin called on the North Atlantic Alliance "the biggest step in collective security that has been taken in the history of the world."

147 Take Exams For Labor Job

A civil service examination for a $2,160 position as laborer on New York city water supply projects attracted 147 Ulster county applicants to Ellenville Tuesday, Louis Brooks, B.W.S. clerk at Ellenville, reported.

There are 61 vacancies in seven counties, and Tuesday's examination was only one of the examinations scheduled to fill these vacancies. One examination will be held in each of the seven counties.

According to the notice posted by the Municipal Civil Service Commission of New York city, the annual salary of $2,160 includes a cost-of-living bonus of $660. The jobs are on water projects outside of the city of New York.

The three biggest peanut producing nations last year were India, China and the United States.

High Falls Man Honored
High Falls, June 9—About 75 relatives of George Williams, Sr., gathered at his home Sunday afternoon to pay honor to him because of his birthday and his retirement from Central Hudson. Mr. Williams retired Thursday, June 2, after being employed by Central Hudson at their Recreation Center at Rifton for some time. All of his seven children, 14 grandchildren and three brothers were present, also an aged aunt from New Paltz was able to attend.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Williams and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Williams, Jr. and Mrs. Sterling Jansen and daughter, Mrs. Amos Stokes and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bush, Raymond and Charles Wil-

Lawrence Kolodjeski,
Florence Kozlowski
Married in Esopus

Miss Florence C. Kozlowski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Kozlowski of Ulster Park, was united in marriage to Lawrence Kolodjeski, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Kolodjeski, 61 Russell street, Brooklyn, Sunday, June 2, p. m. The double ring ceremony was performed at Sacred Heart Church, Esopus, by the Rev. Joseph Weil, pastor.

Students of Mount St. Albanus provided music for the wedding. Miss Winifred Enbrett was soloist. The church was decorated with red, white and pink pom-poms and white roses, candles, and the pews were marked with satin bows.

Mr. Kozlowski escorted his daughter. She wore a gown of white lace over satin made with Peter Pan collar, long pointed sleeves, fitted bodice, full skirt and long train. Her French illusion fingertip veil was attached to a high crown of seed pearls. She carried a cascade of white roses.

Mrs. Frank Sliwack of Asoria, L. I., as matron of honor for her sister, wore an orchid chiffon gown and carried yellow roses. The bridesmaids, the Misses Betty Jane Ostrander, 180 Abel street, and Patricia Haince, 12 Arley street, wore green chiffon gowns and carried tulleman roses. All wore horsehair picture hats and mits to match their gowns. The hats were trimmed with long ribbon streamers and rosettes surrounding the crowns.

Frank Sliwack, brother-in-law of the bride, was best man. Ushers were Thomas Kozlowski and Victor Kozlowski, Jr., brothers of the bride.

A reception for about 200 guests was held at the Ulster Park Grange Hall. Afterward Mr. and Mrs. Kolodjeski left for a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and New England. She wore a green and white silk dress with bolero, white top, green accessories and white orchid corsage. They will live in Asoria.

The bride is a graduate of Hempstead High School and for the past five years has been employed at the New York Telephone Company. Her husband is chemist at the Areoball Manufacturing Co., Bystowle. He was graduated from LaSalle Academy and served in Europe with the Army Air Force. He is attending St. John's University.

Preventing Stains

To prevent stains on damp linoleum or enamel which the metal cleaning powder cans may leave, dunk the bottom of the can in melted paraffin. The waxy coating will prevent metal from coming in contact with freshly-cleaned surfaces.

Soloists for Sunday's Concert

ALMA BURGER

ROBERT MESSINGER

K.H.S. Chorus Will Sing Important Work
In Faure's 'Requiem'

When Kingston High School's Chorus of 200 voices sings Gabriel Faure's Requiem Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, the young people will be presenting one of the most deeply moving choral works of the day. It was composed in 1887 and in January 1888 was introduced at the Madeleine Church in Paris. It has been described as "one of those compositions which do most honor to music and thought. Nothing purer, clearer in definition, has been written."

The chorus will sing the Requiem in Latin. It is divided into seven sections: Introit and Kyrie, Offertorium, Sanctus, Pie Jesu, Agnus Dei, Libera Me and In Paradisum.

Soloists with the chorus will be two former Kingston High School choristers, Miss Alma Burger, soprano; and Robert Messinger, baritone. While at K.H.S. they were featured soloists with the A Cappella Choir and after graduation both attended Thaca College where they majored in music.

Miss Burger is supervisor of music in the Cairo school.

Mr. Messinger teaches music in the North Junior High School at Watertown.

Roy Boldt, accompanist for the choir, will be at the organ console. Miss Alice Milonig and Miss Ramona Leonard will be the pianists. Leonard Stone will direct. The chorus is presenting the program as a complimentary concert. Tickets may be obtained from chorus members or at the high school. There will be no charge for admission but those attending must present a complimentary card at the door.

Mrs. Hayes Installed
By Mothers' Group

At the June meeting of the Mothers' Club, Immaculate Conception School, new officers were installed for the coming school year. New officers are Mrs. Robert Hayes, president; Mrs. John Markert, vice president; Mrs. George Thomas, financial secretary; Mrs. Ignatius Prusack, secretary; and Mrs. Charles Buboltz, treasurer.

Corsages of roses were presented to Mrs. Hayes and Mrs. George Reis, retiring president. After the business meeting the group enjoyed a turkey supper served in the school hall.

Cooperation Stressed For Parents, Teachers In Religious Training

The need for close cooperation of church school teachers and parents, both consecrated in the task of training children in religious faith and the Christian life, was discussed by the new Protestant Church School Council at its June meeting Wednesday in the First Baptist Church. The Rev. Floyd B. McGuire, D. D., pastor of the Larchmont Avenue Presbyterian Church, Larchmont, was the guest speaker.

The council also decided to conduct a teacher training course next fall and a committee will plan the curriculum this summer. Another project which the council is planning is a union rally day service.

Important Function
"The most important function of a church as a church is the training of boys and girls in a Christian life," Dr. McGuire emphasized as he considered the parents' and teachers' responsibilities to children in the church school. And he continued "The most important thing in life is to know God and to obey his word."

The best kind of training in religious life, Dr. McGuire said, was the integration of the religious training program between church and home. Parents set the examples as well as teachers for the children. Sincere worship, prayer and reading the Bible in the home are most important factors in training children in religious faith.

"A child who is brought to Sunday school by his father who is dressed in sport's clothes and driving a sport's car and who after leaving the child goes to the country club for a round of Sunday morning golf or back home to read the papers, is certainly not helping to instill religious practice and faith in the child," Dr. McGuire pointed out.

The speaker also deplored the lack of interest by parents in discussing the Sunday school lessons with the children. Homes spend several hours each week in listening to the radio, going to the movies, riding in the family automobile, reading comics, going to school for secular education, eating and sleeping, but there doesn't seem to be even 15 minutes left to discuss religion, the speaker noted.

Atmosphere
Dr. McGuire compared the atmosphere of most modern homes with the kind of relationship which must have existed in the home of Mary and Joseph in their personal lives and feeling of responsibility in training the young boy, Jesus.

In the same way he spoke of the examples set by Sunday school teachers. He urged that teachers contact absentees in the Sunday school class each week and visit the homes of pupils often to become acquainted with the young people as well as their parents. In this manner the home and church would be brought closer together.

Dr. McGuire defined an ideal school of religious education as a God inspired teacher and an open minded child. He stressed the importance of inspired teaching and the use of the Bible as the main source of material. He noted that a rediscovery of the Bible is necessary in both the church, school and the home.

Other qualifications for a good teacher included knowing the Bible and elementary child psychology which he described as using good common sense toward a child. Charles Rinschler, head of the council, presided. Following the talk many of those attending asked questions concerning Sunday school work.

The next meeting of the group will be in the fall although the appointed committees will be active during the summer months.

Personal Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Morris J. Davis of 59 Clinton Avenue are spending the week in New York visiting the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Ernest R. Palen and family. They will attend the commencement exercises of the senior class of Friends Seminary, University Square, New York, where their granddaughter, Miss Sally Ann Palen, will be one of the seniors graduating. Miss Palen will enter Hope College, Holland, Mich., this fall.

Two students from Kingston and vicinity are new members of the Ithaca College Chapter of Delta Kappa national fraternity for prospective teachers and coaches: Gustave Koch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gustave J. Koch, 139 West Chester Street; and Robert W. Wendland, son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Wendland, Napanoch.

Miss Marjorie Osmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Osmer, Tillson, was recently initiated into the Beta Omega chapter of Alpha Psi Omega national honorary dramatics fraternity. The members are chosen for excellence in acting and stagecraft as well as high scholastic standing.

Port Ewen Corps Plans Busy Season Parading in Valley

Port Ewen, Fire, Drum and Bugle Corps is looking forward to a busy season with four parades arranged within the next few weeks. The corps won the first prize last year at the Poughkeepsie Regatta parade and will parade again this year Friday night, June 24.

Two engagements have been made for July 4. The corps will parade with the Lynch Hose Company of Saugerties in the morning; and with the Washington Hose Company No. 3 in Hudson in the afternoon.

Locally the corps has been engaged to parade with the Excelsior Hose Company No. 4 in the Ulster County Fireman's Convention July 30, in Kingston.

The music director of the group is Albert Rossi, well-known Kingston musician. Organizations desiring to hire the corps may do so by contacting any member or Thomas Gorham, secretary, for details.

Church Has Dinner Party for Graduates

The young people of the congregation who will be graduated from colleges and high school this June were honored by Clinton Avenue Methodist Church Wednesday night with a dinner party at Kirkland Hotel. There were 38 graduates, members of the official board, parents and friends at the party.

Edgar B. Schepmoes, chairman of the official board of the church, presided. Invocation was asked by Frank S. Hyatt who also spoke to the graduates. Others who addressed the graduates were Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk, Mrs. Newkirk, president of the W.S.C.S.; Samuel Vaughn of the high school faculty; and the Rev. William R. Peckham, pastor of the church.

Each of the graduates responded. Those attending were the Misses Jacqueline Kirk, Jeannine Snyder, Ruth Behrens, Elizabeth Masch, Irena Yerry, Julietta Yaple, also James Embree, Paul Snyder and Leon Reynolds of K.E.S.; Miss Collette Magnusson, New Paltz State Teachers College. Others of the church who will be graduating include Huyler Van Wagonen from K.H.S., Henry Hopper, New Paltz; Fred Dressel, Jr., Syracuse University; and Allen MacCollam, Albany Medical College.

Mary Short Honored At Surprise Shower

Miss Mary A. Short of 11 Adams street was honored at a surprise bridal shower Sunday night at the home of Mrs. Ward DuBois, 31 Linderman avenue. Miss Short will become the bride of Harold W. Ertz of Ladloton July 10. Decorations were in yellow and white, featuring a sprinkling can.

Those present were the Misses Alice Johnson, Helen Mayor, Helen Silkworth, Gwendolyn Hulsah, Laura VanWagenen, Rosemary Murphy, Hazel Tobias, Kathryn McAuliffe, Mathilda Short, Lillian King, Anne Dittmar and the Misses Frank Peller, Edward Peller, Raymond Short, Arthur Short, William Short, Samuel Comerata, John King, Eleanor Barkley and Mrs. DuBois. Unable to attend but who sent presents were the Misses Mary Beichert, Doris Liden and Mary Alice Vroman and the Misses Donald Vanderlyn and George Ertz.

Cashin School Gives Revue

The Cashin School of Dancing opened its annual revue at the Broadway Theatre Wednesday night. With approximately 100 pupils taking part the show has been divided into interesting scenes with colorful costumes and different types of dancing.

There are several soloists who show various degrees of training and also natural talent for expressing dance routines. As always the youngest dance pupils provide some of the most entertaining parts of the program. The show will be repeated tonight at approximately 8 p. m.

Church Honors Graduates at Dinner Party

Also attending were Elizabeth Masch, James Embree, Irena Yerry, Julietta Yaple and Collette Magnusson. (Freeman Photo)

Beta Sigma Phi Honors New Members; Installs Officers

New York Gamma Chapter 2392 of Beta Sigma Phi held a dinner at Ye Nieuw Dorp in Hurley, Wednesday night, after which the ritual of jewels was given to the new members of the year and installation of officers was held.

The members who have been taken into the sorority during the past year include Mrs. Walter Hubbard, Mrs. Edmund Holland, Mrs. Frank Marino and the Misses Lois Rider and Virginia Grace.

Mrs. Roger Billings led in the installation of the newly elected officers: Miss Gladys Wiedemann, president; Mrs. Albert Roosa, vice president; Mrs. Charles Horne, corresponding secretary; Miss Mildred Patruski, recording secretary; Mrs. Palmer Brodhead, treasurer.

Announcement was made of the first formal dance of Beta Sigma Phi's sister sorority, Phi Phi Mu, to be held at the Twaanhill Club, June 18. All interested in securing tickets may contact members of either sorority.

Kiwanis Key Club Plans Benefit Sale

The recently organized Kiwanis Key Club at Kingston High School will hold a rummage sale Saturday in the Montgomery Ward store, North Front street beginning at 10 a. m. The young men decided to hold the sale to earn money for service projects which they hope to sponsor at the high school.

Mothers of the members will cooperate in acting as saleswomen. A variety of clothing, toys and hardware are promised for sale by the young people.

Arrangements for the sale have been made by Richard Davenport, Gary Short, president; Owen Cassidy, secretary; and Richard Skutzi.

May Skip Rug Strike

Frederick N. J., June 9 (AP)—Some 1,400 C.I.O. Textile Workers here have voted to accept a formula that may avoid a strike of 25,000 rug workers in eastern cities. As outlined to the members by union spokesmen, the formula, previously not made public, would continue the existing contract. Demands for a 15-cent-an-hour wage increase would be abandoned, along with a pension plan and longer vacations for veteran employees.

However, a clause is included permitting the union, on 60 days' notice, to reopen negotiations for pay and pensions after September 1. The average wage for the rug workers now is $1.50 an hour.

Honors Bachelors' Wives

Bethlehem, Pa. (AP)—"Commencement for Twos" will be observed by Lehigh University at its annual ceremonies June 20. Not only will married seniors at this men's university receive diplomas, but their wives will get certificates of recognition as well. Each wife of a bachelor will be cited for "devotion and understanding" which "encouraged her husband in the successful completion of his college career."

Wiltwycks Take Second Place With 7-4 Win Over Boulevards

McElrath Hurls Five-Hit Victory

Wiltwyck Motors, behind the five-hit hurling of "Fink" McElrath, took over undisputed possession of second place in the City Baseball League, Wednesday night by trouncing Boulevard 7 to 4 at the Athletic Field. It was the Guller's fourth straight victory without a win.

McElrath, who was on the ropes in the second when the Guller's exploded for four runs, settled down and held the losers at bay for the rest of the way. His mates quickly came to the rescue with five runs in the last half of the second and added two more "insurance" runs in the fourth.

Last night's win for the Wiltwycks gives the club a 3-1 record, a half a game behind the league-leading Jones Dairy nine.

Boulevards jumped out in front in the second with a walk to Schryver, singles by Carlinio, Barber and Ferraro and a double by Steltz. An error by Sickler also helped the four-run rally.

Given a 4-0 bulge, Gavin, the Boulevard moundsman, lost his control in the bottom half of the second by walking Murray. Five runs finally came across aided by Secret's pair of errors, and one-base blows by Black, Sickler and Newkirk. Gavin also walked his mound foe, McElrath, during the uprising.

Newkirk Homers

Newkirk, centerfielder for Wiltwycks, exploded a homer over the left field fence in the fourth with Murray aboard to make it a 7-4 game. Murray had reached on Carlinio's boot.

Awards last night included $5 to Newkirk for his circuit clout from Ferraro's Bowldrome. The home run hitter also picked up a carton of cigarettes from Len Sickler and a quart of ice cream from Ambrose Brothers.

The boxscore:

Small Belmont Field

New York, June 9 (AP)—Only six horses, smallest field since 1943, appear likely to face the starter Saturday in the 81st running of the famed Belmont Stakes. Calumet Farm's Ponder, the Kentucky Derby winner, appears certain to be established the favorite by an expected crowd of about 50,000. After running fifth to Capot in the Preakness, Ponder came back last Saturday and took the Peter Pan Handicap at Belmont.

Worcester, Mass.—Phil Terranova, 136, New York, stopped Dom Sala, 133½, Boston, 3.

Majors Given 30 Days to Decide On All Jumpers

Cincinnati, June 9 (AP)—Major league ball clubs will have 30 days in which to make up their minds whether they want to keep their reinstated ball players if the return boosts them over the 25-play limit.

Eighteen players, banned from organized baseball three years ago for jumping to the Mexican League, were made eligible for reinstatement last Sunday by Baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler. In most instances clubs holding the men's contracts will go over the limit if the players return.

Chandler yesterday issued an order relaxing the rule which limits teams to 25 players. This will give the clubs a chance to determine whether the reinstated players can make the major league grade.

The commission ruled, however, that if a player is used in a regular league game the 30-day grace period will end immediately.

This makes it necessary for club officials to decide about the men from what they see in practice and in any exhibition games.

Eight Apply

Another provision of the order forbids the club owners from releasing any of the players or assigning their contract to minor league outfits until after the 30 days have elapsed. Their salaries also will start as soon as they rejoin their club.

Eight of the players already have filed for reinstatement. They are Max Lanier, Fred Martin and Lou Klein of the St. Louis Cardinals; George Hausman, Harry Feldman, Adrian Zabala and Sal Maglie of the New York Giants and Mickey Owen of the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Others with players eligible for reinstatement are Philadelphia of the National League and Detroit, Chicago and Philadelphia of the American League.

Last Night's Results

An eighth inning clout over Mitchell Field scoreboard didn't decide the game but gave the paying customers something to shout about as the home-playing Stamford Pioneers swamped Waterbury Timers, 12-2, Wednesday.

The circuit smash, estimated at between 380 to 400 feet, came off Scotty Koproski's bat with two on. The Pioneers already enjoyed an 8-2 romp when the left fielder provided the excitement.

Bristol home folk, more than 600 strong, saw the locals blow a 7-5 lead in the ninth and drop the game, 8-7, to Poughkeepsie. The Chiefs got two on by walks in the ninth, then came across with three runs on a single and an error.

Carles, Bernier slammed his fourth home run in three games for the Owls to no avail.

Men Take Records Of C.I.O. Union; Wires Are Cut

New York, June 9 (AP)—A group of well-dressed men today entered the offices of a C.I.O. union which is opposing two other C.I.O. unions in an election and made off with records and other papers.

Police said the intruders, numbering at least seven men, ransacked desks and cut telephone wires before leaving with the papers. Five union men in the office were shown into a small room.

The offices are the headquarters of Local 213 of the C.I.O. Utilities and Maintenance Union.

This local is involved in an election today with two other unions—the Transport Workers and the United Transport Service Employees—to determine which shall represent 300 clerks employed by the Hudson and Manhattan Railroad. The election is being conducted by the National Mediation Board.

Eugene Teeter, organizational director of Local 213, told police two men entered the offices about 7:25 a. m. (E.S.T.) and said they were electrical workers who wanted to join the local.

As he went to the safe, Teeter said, the men held their hands menacingly in their pockets and announced, "we're cops and this is a pinch."

Teeter said he and the four other occupants of the office then were forced into a small room, from where they could hear desks being ransacked. He said they made no outcry because they thought the men were police.

The local's officials said it would take six months to restore all of the records. They said the unit's check books and four checks from members totaling $30 were among the items taken.

Guerrillas Take Over

London, June 9 (AP)—Communist-led Greek guerrillas today claimed they had seized the entire Grammos mountain area in northwestern Greece adjacent to the Albanian border. The Yugoslav news agency Tanjug quoted a guerrilla broadcast as saying that rebel forces had inflicted a "major disaster" on Greek Army units on that barren battleground. An Athens communique conceded that Greek Army forces have abandoned two heights in the Grammos region. The bulletin contended the army's withdrawal was voluntary.

ROSENDALE NEWS

Grange Meeting

Rosendale, June 9—Rosendale Grange 1501 will hold its next regular meeting on Monday, June 13, at 8:30 p. m. in the Grange hall on Main street. The lecture's program will be based on the theme "City vs. Country Living" and will feature a debate on this subject with several members participating. Refreshment committee for this meeting is composed of Mrs. Isabel Bordenstein, chairman; Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Mack, Jack Bordenstein, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mack, Mrs. Mary Mack, Mrs. Mae Krom, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph O'Connor, Egbert and Earl Mack, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. W. Rooney, John Kane and Kenneth Randerger.

White Will Stay

Rosendale, June 9—J. G. White of Kingston, who has been temporarily acting as freight agent at the Rosendale station, since the death of former agent John Winters, has received notice of his permanent appointment as Rosendale freight agent by the New York Central Railroad effective as of June 1. Prior to his assignment White was freight agent at Wampole for six years. His many friends and business acquaintances in the town will be pleased to know that he is to continue permanently in his present position.

Board-up Caves

Rosendale, June 9—Pedestrians and motorists traveling on the Lawrenceville road in Rosendale will no longer find temporary relief from the summer heat in the cold blast of air which emanated from the abandoned cement caves in that location. Knaust Bros., Inc., internationally known mushroom growers, who have for a number of years been utilizing the caverns for this purpose, are boarding up the open spaces at the entrance of the Lawrenceville caverns, and making general operating improvements, preparatory to again growing mushrooms in that particular section.

Meet Mayor Today

New York, June 9 (AP)—Mayor William O'Dwyer, who says he won't try for another term in office, meet at 3:30 p. m. today with political friends seeking to draft him to run for re-election. The purpose of the meeting—called by the mayor—has not been disclosed. But speculation was that the Democratic mayor would let the "Draft O'Dwyer" committee know definitely what its chances are of pulling him into the race.
